

PUERTO RICAN WORKMAN IS KILLED BY CAR

Jaime Silva, 20, a Puerto Rican employed at Worley's Nursery, York Springs R. 1, was fatally injured Wednesday night at 11:20 o'clock when struck by a car while walking along the Gettysburg-Harrisburg Rd.

State Police said the accident occurred 5.3 miles north of York Springs in Franklin Twp., York County.

According to the officers, Silva and a fellow employee at the nursery, Lorenzo Merzado, 25, were walking south on the south-bound lane of the highway in a heavy rain when Silva was struck by a southbound auto operated by Ray H. Haverstock, 39, New Oxford R. 1.

Dr. C. G. Crist, Adams County coroner, said Silva died in Haverstock's car while it was in Huntington Twp., Adams County, while enroute to the Warner Hospital here. The death was caused by a fractures skull and internal injuries.

Dr. Crist said the York Springs ambulance was summoned after the accident but Merzado threatened to hit Haverstock if he did not remove Silva immediately to the hospital. Haverstock then, according to Dr. Crist, took the injured man to the hospital but death occurred enroute. The York Springs ambulance, unable to find the injured man upon its arrival at the scene, eventually found its services were not needed when its drivers received word by radio from the hospital that the patient had arrived there and been pronounced dead on arrival. State Police were notified by the quick call center here, which had been assisting in the radio communications between the ambulance and hospital.

Dr. Crist said he understood Silva and Merzado had been in Steelton and were returning to Worley's Nursery when the accident occurred.

WHITE CLOVER DAY JULY 4 FOR AMVETS

A white clover sale will be held in Gettysburg on July 4 by the Fairfield Amvets and Auxiliary. It was reported at a meeting of the auxiliary Tuesday at the post home.

Burgess Wilbur L. Plank has given permission for the sale and has issued a proclamation proclaiming July 4 as "White Clover Day."

Faye Baker, president of the auxiliary, presided at Tuesday's meeting. A donation was voted to the carillon project, a yearly program to assist Amvets in maintenance of the carillon in Arlington National Cemetery as a memorial to World War II dead. Additional carillons are located at San Diego, Calif., and Jefferson Barracks, Mo. Another soon will be completed at the USS Arizona Memorial at Pearl Harbor.

ATTEND CONVENTION
Eight auxiliary members will attend the state convention this weekend at Reading and plan to march with the post's drill team in the convention parade.

The pig-in-the-poke was won by Alice Bushman and the door prize by Lena Crisp.

The next regular meeting will be held Tuesday, July 18, when officials from the United Telephone Co. will explain the operation of dial telephones.

Report Bus Stops For Happy Valley

Bus stops for the Girl Scouts of Coneago Chapel, East Berlin, New Oxford and York Springs, who will begin their week's stay at Camp Happy Valley Monday, were announced today.

One bus will leave the York Springs fire hall at 8 o'clock each morning and stop at the East Berlin bank at 8:15 enroute to the day camp at Fairfield. Another bus will leave the New Oxford square at 8:15 o'clock each morning. Camp will close at 3 o'clock each afternoon and the girls will then be returned to the same spots in their home communities on the return trip. All Scouts are to have lunch boxes and parent's permission slips when they board the buses Monday morning.

Bryan Takes Over Key Job In State Department Of Public Instruction July 1

Dr. Herbert E. Bryan, New Oxford, former teacher at Arendtsville and New Oxford and since 1958 director of school business services in the state Department of Public Instruction, will take over July 1 as director of the Bureau of School District Organization in the state DPI.

With school district reorganization a major feature of the recommendations of the Governor's Committee on Education, Dr. Bryan will occupy a position of key importance if that program is adopted.

Bryan's appointment was announced last week by Dr. Charles H. Boehm, superintendent of public instruction in the state, as a move to step up the department's encouragement of consolidation among the state's 2,244 school districts.

Boehm noted that Gov. Lawrence in addressing the legislature June 12 said the key to any improved education program was district reorganization as recommended by his special study committee.

"OUTSTANDING AUTHORITY"
"This appointment brings to the problems of school district organization one of the Commonwealth's outstanding authorities on the subject," Boehm said. He added that Bryan's experience in this field "makes his new assignment a prime necessity in view of the (Continued On Page 3)"

BEGIN WORK FOR CARNIVAL AT FAIRFIELD

Additional plans for the annual firemen's carnival on July 1, 3 and 4 were made at a special meeting of the Fairfield Fire Company Wednesday evening at the fire hall.

Robert Fite, carnival chairman, outlined plans and it was decided members would report to the grounds on Saturday and Sunday to set up outside needs. Next Monday evening members are asked to report to the kitchen to help prepare for meals.

It was pointed out that coin card collectors will start Monday to pick up the donations. Members were asked to have the solicitations completed by July 1.

Paul Myers, company president, presided at the meeting. Following the meeting members adjourned to the grounds to start preparation for the carnival.

MRS. REDDING EXPIRES AT 71

Mrs. Maude A. Redding, 71, wife of Bernard W. Redding Sr., 32 W. Confederate Ave., died this morning at 6:32 o'clock at the Warner Hospital where she had been admitted Sunday evening.

She was born in Adams County, a daughter of the late Larkin J. and Minnie (Bushey) Bucher. She was a member of St. Francis Xavier Catholic Church, Rosary Society, Pennsylvania Catholic Beneficial League, Barlow Home-makers Club and had been an active member of the Woman's Club of Gettysburg. In her younger days she taught piano and was also a church organist.

In addition to her husband, to whom she was married 49 years, surviving are five children, Mrs. Robert Keinar, Towson, Md.; Bernard W. Jr., Gettysburg; Donald R., Omaha, Neb.; Mrs. Donald A. Slama, Orange, Tex.; and William F. II, at home; eight grandchildren; one great-grandchild; two sisters, Mrs. Ruth Hartzel, Gettysburg, and Mrs. Clarence Deardorff, McKnightstown.

Funeral services Monday morning, meeting at the Bender Funeral Home at 8:15 with a Requiem High Mass at 9 o'clock at St. Francis Church. Interment in the church cemetery.

Friends may call at the funeral home Sunday evening from 7 to 9 o'clock where the Rosary will be recited at 8 o'clock.

GRANT FOR COLLEGE
The Presser Foundation, Philadelphia has awarded Gettysburg College a scholarship grant of $400 for the academic year 1961-62. President Willard S. Paul announced today. The scholarship is to be awarded to an undergraduate student or students in need of scholarship aid, preference to be given to those who hope to become teachers of music.

FIVE INJURED IN CRASH NEAR PEACE LIGHT

Jesse Tuckey, 45, Biglerville R. 1, was in a satisfactory condition at the Warner Hospital today following an auto accident Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock near the Peace Light.

Tuckey suffered lacerations of the scalp, a fractured skull and contusions of the chest when his station wagon was struck by a car and overturned. Less seriously injured were four Puerto Rican laborers whom Tuckey was driving from the bus station here to his farm near Biglerville.

State police said Tuckey was driving north on the Mummaburg Rd. when Wilbert L. Anderson, 64, Mars, Pa., driving east on the battlefield avenue, stopped at the stop sign, then pulled out into the Mummaburg Rd. The front of his car struck the side of the station wagon and it turned over twice before coming to rest off the side of the road.

DRIVER CHARGED
Gettysburg's ambulance rushed the injured occupants of Tuckey's vehicle to the Warner Hospital. There Tuckey and Ruben Ocsio, 25, were admitted. Ocsio suffered lacerations behind the right ear, multiple cuts of the face and left hand and was to be x-rayed today to determine whether he sustained a skull fracture. Treated at the hospital were Teof Toffiloosio, 32, who had abrasions of the forehead and contusions of the chest; Julio Cintron, 22, abrasions of the right knee, and Felipe Rosa, 28, contusions of the nose.

Clothing and possessions of the Puerto Ricans who had just arrived in the county for the summer's work were scattered about as a result of the accident. Damage to the station wagon, which was demolished, was estimated at $400.

Damage to Anderson's sedan was estimated at $150. Anderson, his wife, Mary Belle, 53, and daughter, Elinor Louise, 15, occupants of Anderson's car, were uninjured.

A charge of failing to yield the right of way was filed against Anderson by state police before Justice of the Peace John Whitman.

Fire Auxiliary Asks Carnival Aid

The Auxiliary of the Gettysburg Fire Department will have complete charge of the kitchen at the firemen's carnival celebrating the 98th Battle Anniversary to be held July 3 through 8 at Recreation Park. It was announced today by General Chairman Francis I. Linn.

Mrs. Martin Crabill, president of the auxiliary, will be chairman for the kitchen and dining room, assisted by the Ways and Means Committee chairman, Mrs. Ray Breighner, as co-chairman.

The chairman of the committee today asked for volunteers to serve during the carnival in the kitchen and dining room.

FORMS TEENS GROUP
Adams County Home Economist Mrs. Helen D. Tunison today announced she is forming a "Teens in Their Homes" group, a project designed to help with room improvement, lighting, study plans, walls and floor improvement. A meeting of all interested persons will be held June 29 at 8 p.m. in the West St. branch of the Gettysburg National Bank.

GERMANS GIVE HEROIC SIZE BUST TO IKE

Former President Dwight D. Eisenhower was presented a heroic size mahogany bust of himself this morning at 10:30 o'clock by the German ambassador, His Excellency Wilhelm G. Grewe. The bust was carved by Mrs. Annie Hosken-Hempel, Trier, Germany, world renowned sculptress, who accompanied the ambassador to Gettysburg and was present at the formal presentation in Gen. Eisenhower's Carlisle St. office.

In making the presentation, Ambassador Grewe said that the gift, made in behalf of the German Society for Foreign Policy, was a "token of the gratitude and respect of the German people." He said that although the work had been begun several years ago while Gen. Eisenhower was still in office it was better "that the presentation be made now not to the holder of a powerful office but to a friend of the German people." He also expressed to Eisenhower the best wishes of Chancellor Konrad Adenauer.

In accepting the gift General Eisenhower expressed his gratitude to the artist and the Foreign Policy Society. He said that he had had great respect for the German people and admiration for what they were accomplishing and hoped that "our problems, which are not of our making, will cease. We must stand together."

OTHERS PRESENT
Dr. Bruno E. Werner, cultural attache at the German embassy, accompanied Ambassador Grewe and Mrs. Hosken-Hempel. Present also was Arthur Kimball, a former White House staffer who was director of the President's Advisory Committee on Government Organization and is now a member of the Washington law firm of Boykin and DeFrancis.

The donor of the gift, which Gen. Eisenhower called "the nearest likeness as I see myself," is a nongovernmental organization but is strongly supported by the Bonn government. The formal presentation message underscored Eisenhower's "outstanding contribution in the field of foreign affairs and German-American friendship."

Mrs. Hosken-Hempel is the only woman ever to win a gold medal in the World Exhibition at Paris, having received her award in 1937. She has done similar busts of many famous world figures such as the late Pope Pius XII, Chancellor Adenauer, former Italian Minister De Gasperi and Prime Minister Nehru. She works directly in the wood without models.

Prior to the presentation, Gen. Eisenhower talked briefly with his guests and showed them a number of his paintings.

LEOPOLDVILLE, the Congo (AP)—President Moise Tshombe of Katanga was freed today after being held a prisoner of the Congolese central government for the past two months.

Smiling broadly and in apparent good health, Tshombe drove up to the residence of Premier Joseph Ileo of the Leopoldville government to hold a news conference.

ZURICH, Switzerland (AP)—The three princes of Laos' warring factions agreed today to form a government of national unity to be named by the nation's king.

The three princes—pro-Western Premier Boum Oum, neutralist Souvanna Phouma and pro-Communist Prince Souvanna Phouma—were announced today.

Kennedy Has Mild Virus, Skips Regular Schedule

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy came down with a "mild virus infection" today. His temperature hit 101.6 degrees.

But the President's temperature had been receding for a couple of hours, press secretary Pierre Salinger said when reporting the illness to newsmen at 9:35 a.m.

Kennedy cancelled all of his appointments for the day but Salinger said his doctors believed he can resume his regular schedule Friday.

WADE CALLED FOR
As a precaution, Dr. Preston Wade, New York orthopedic specialist, was called down to examine the President to see if the virus infection has had any effect on his back ailment.

Wade was to see Kennedy in midmorning.

Salinger said Kennedy's temperature reached 101.6 at 7 a.m. He added it had dropped to 100.2 at 8:30 a.m. and was down to 99.2 at 9:25 a.m.

SURGERY FUND WORKERS WILL MEET TONIGHT

Public campaign workers for the $350,000 Warner Hospital surgical floor fund will hold their second report meeting this evening at 7:30 o'clock in the Hotel Gettysburg pressroom. Attorney Richard A. Brown, chairman, said today.

Mrs. John D. Teeter and Attorney S. M. Raffensperger, co-chairmen of the public campaign, urged that team workers make early reports to their captains and as many captains or team representatives as possible attend this evening's meeting.

The co-chairmen pointed out that an analysis of last Tuesday's report meeting showed pledges accounting for 82 per cent of the total amount contributed during the first three days of the public campaign. Cash gifts accounted for 18 per cent. There were 22 pledges, totalling $3,587, while 16 cash contributions totaled only $807. Pledges averaged $163 and cash gifts, $50.

VALUE OF PLAN
Interpreting the analysis, Raffensperger said it proved the value of the six-payment plan of subscriptions as contrasted with out-of-pocket gifts. Under the plan, contributors may pledge an amount to be paid in six equal intervals covering a period of 24 months extending into three years, he said.

"If all the workers do their best to sell subscriptions under the six-payment plan, it is obvious that the campaign will succeed," Mrs. Teeter said. She pointed out that the campaign organization of nearly 500 workers will call on more than 4,000 residents of Adams County and northern Maryland in the hospital's service area before June 30, when the campaign is scheduled to end.

$40,979 FOR COUNTY

Approval for the payment of $40,979.05 to Adams County from the Liquid Fuels Tax Funds were made Wednesday by Auditor General Thomas Z. Minehart at Harrisburg. The money is distributed to counties for the purpose of construction, reconstruction, maintenance and repair of county owned roads, highways and bridges.

During the comparable half year in 1960 there were four aggravated assault, three manslaughter cases, 15 minor assaults, nine burglaries, 14 larcenies, one auto theft, three forgery cases, six sex offenses, one deadly weapon case, one violation of the liquor laws, 31 nonsupport, 12 drunken driving, 30 other motor code violations, one gambling and 31 other offenses.

Countians Invited To "Open House"

Further plans were announced today by the Adams County commissioners for the "open house" to be held at the new county home Saturday afternoon from 2 to 4 o'clock.

The commissioners said all countians are invited to attend the "open house" during which the guests of the home will be "at home" to the visitors. E. Donald Scott, chairman of the commissioners' said the program will provide an opportunity for countians to meet with the guests formally for the first time in the new home.

The Auxiliary of the County Home will provide refreshments during the period and is completing plans for entertainment during the two-hour period. Mrs. Edna Kuhn, Cashtown, is chairman of the refreshment committee. The refreshment committee will be held at the new county home Saturday afternoon from 2 to 4 o'clock.

MOTORIST CHARGED
Justice of the Peace Anna E. Thompson has sent a 10-day notice to Anna L. Davis, Box 213, Biglerville, on a stop sign violation field by special Gettysburg College Policeman L. C. Hamme.

Three Conferences Coming To Campus

Three church conferences are scheduled to meet at Gettysburg College during June 23-30 and July 9-15.

The Luther League of the Central Pennsylvania Synod, United Lutheran Church in America will open its three-day conference on Friday.

The United Lutheran Church in America Northern Conference on Rural Nonfarm Population is scheduled to hold a three-day session June 27, 28 and 29.

The United Lutheran Church in America Assembly for Church Workers will meet the week of July 9-15.

Some 700 persons are expected to attend the three conferences.

MORE CASES IN CRIMINAL COURT IN '61

Adams County's crime rate is increasing — judging by the report on judicial criminal statistics made by County Clerk of Courts W. Kenneth Johns to the state Department of Welfare.

Johns' report for the May term of court shows 83 cases before the court, as compared to 48 in the May term a year ago, when a record low for recent years was listed.

Johns' reports, made each term of court to the state welfare department, show 170 cases during the first two terms of this year. In the same two terms of 1960 there were 122 cases listed.

TYPES OF CASES

During the first six months of this judicial year cases included: One murder, one manslaughter, four robbery, three aggravated assault, seven minor assault, 22 burglaries, 13 larcenies, six auto thefts, three embezzlement cases, three stolen property, seven forgery, three sex offenses, one deadly weapon case, one violation of the liquor laws, 31 nonsupport, 12 drunken driving, 30 other motor code violations, one gambling and 31 other offenses.

During the comparable half year in 1960 there were four aggravated assault, three manslaughter cases, 15 minor assaults, nine burglaries, 14 larcenies, one auto theft, three forgery cases, six sex offenses, one deadly weapon case, one violation of the liquor laws, 31 nonsupport, 12 drunken driving, 30 other motor code violations, one gambling and 31 other offenses.

STATE PTA TO GATHER HERE

The Pennsylvania Congress of Parents and Teachers will hold a summer leadership session at Gettysburg College July 16-20. Attendance is expected to reach 300.

Mrs. C. S. Garey, a past officer of the Pennsylvania and National Congresses of Parents and Teachers, will head the community responsibility section. Andrew W. Gottschall Jr., regional director, National Conference of Christians and Jews, will conduct a workshop for council and district leaders and community delegates.

The conference theme is "The Challenge of the Community." Different schedules under qualified leaders have been arranged for one-day delegates, council and district leaders, advanced leaders and full-time local unit delegates.

The opening session will be held Sunday, July 16, at 7:45 p.m. preceded by a vesper service from 4:30 to 5 p.m.

Officers of the Pennsylvania Congress of Parents and Teachers are: Mrs. Harold G. Moore, Westville, president; Mrs. N. F. Davis, Bloomsburg, vice president; and Mrs. Esther Sanford, of Harrisburg, general secretary.

SUV TO STUDY STATE SITES FOR QUARTERS

Pennsylvania's Sons of Union Veterans are considering establishment of a state headquarters and museum in either Gettysburg or Harrisburg.

At the conclusion of the annual encampment of the state organization at Harrisburg Wednesday Elton P. Koch, Ridley Park, the new department commander, announced that one of his first actions will be to appoint a committee to decide after a study whether Harrisburg or Gettysburg should be the site of the state headquarters.

His decision came after adoption of a resolution to establish a state headquarters where affairs of the various camps could be coordinated.

WILL BE MUSEUM

The headquarters, according to the discussion at the convention, will also be a museum where the numerous relics held by the various SUV camps can be placed on display for tourists and visitors. The discussion indicated there are relics of Civil War days now scattered throughout the commonwealth in possession of various camps which may be lost if they are not placed in some central place for care and safekeeping. These are not generally available now for viewing by the public.

Discussion indicated disagreement concerning the possible location of the museum and state headquarters. Some felt Gettysburg, with its historic connection with the Civil War, would be the appropriate site for such a headquarters and museum. Others felt that Harrisburg, the capital of the state, should be headquarters.

At the concluding sessions of the encampment, the group voted to call upon the legislature to make mandatory observance by the (Continued On Page 3)

The clerk of the courts issued a marriage license today to David F. Crouse, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter F. Crouse, Littlestown R. 1, and Miss Rita L. Beachtel, Littlestown, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence M. Beachtel, Phoenix, Ariz.

JAYCEES AND SEP LAUNCH PROJECT AT DINNER HERE

"Campaign Gettysburg," sponsored jointly by the Saturday Evening Post and the Gettysburg Junior Chamber of Commerce, got off the ground Wednesday evening with a banquet meeting of many of its "official family" at the Hotel Gettysburg.

There were talks by Chairman Don Becker of the Jaycees; Jack Pontius, building products manager for the Post, and Dr. Milton Osborne, head of the architecture department at Penn State University, whose sketches suggest how Gettysburg may "create its historic image" simply and with little expense.

Then the committee members were shown photos of a handful of downtown business properties accompanied by Osborne sketches of suggested changes.

TO LURE VISITORS

By the use of shutters, window mullions, trellises, flower boxes, decorative transoms, the planting of a tree in each corner of Lincoln Square, some iron grille work and suggested use of color, Dr. Osborne offered Gettysburg "a personality in keeping with its historic past and an appearance that will lure shoppers and tourists alike to our town."

Mr. Becker, who served as master of ceremonies, said there will be a later dinner for local contractors and building supply representatives and in September all property owners involved will be invited to a dinner where they will be shown suggested sketches for their own buildings. Next May is set as the target time for completion of the project.

At the head table Wednesday evening, in addition to the speakers, were Burgess Wilbur Plank, President Glenn Guise of the town council and Thomas E. Piper, executive assistant on the "Campaign Gettysburg" who was identified by Becker as "the father of the project."

"TERRIFIC INTEREST"

Mr. Becker said: "We firmly believe that if our town develops a distinctive personality in keeping with its history, we will attract people from nearby towns and cities to shop here and tourists from all parts of the nation." He added that new industry finds most attractive "communities that are trying to do something to improve themselves. This project will have to involve the whole community and we look to you leaders to carry it through to a successful completion."

Mr. Pontius told of the "terrific interest" in Gettysburg at Post headquarters in Gettysburg and "how this project fits into the whole format at the Post. . . . Gettysburg is a showcase for America every year and especially so now with this Civil War centennial observance." He called Dr. Osborne's sketches "tremendously exciting."

BOY IS SHOT THREATENING STATE POLICE

READING, Pa. (AP)—State police reported today they captured two 17-year-old boys who escaped from the Utica, N. Y., State Hospital. Officers said one of the boys was shot as he held a gun at the temple of a trooper.

Norman Wicks, of Saratoga Springs, N. Y., was shot in the arm by State Trooper Louis D. Viola, Wicks, state police said, brandished a .32-caliber revolver against the temple of Trooper David Heist early today when the officers came upon him on Route 422 in nearby Sinking Spring.

Wicks was treated at Reading Hospital for a superficial arm wound, then taken into custody at state police barracks here.

CAPTURE OTHER BOY
The other boy who escaped Wednesday, James Hayes, was captured a short time later near a rural road. He, too, was taken into custody and held pending the arrival of New York authorities.

State Police Captain Reagle O. Parsons said the youths came to the southeastern Pennsylvania community of Sinking Spring in a car stolen in New York. Parsons said stolen Pennsylvania license plates were found on the front seat of the car.

Parsons said a 13-state alarm had been out for the pair. State police here were called to the scene after area residents reported two youths were trying to enter cars parked on Route 422 in Sinking Spring. Parsons said it also was reported that the boys went to the door of the Sinking Spring Branch of the Peoples Trust City Bank.

Parsons said no charges had been filed against the two yet.

Two Injured In Hanover Crash

Two young women were slightly injured in an automobile accident in Hanover at 12:15 p.m. Wednesday. Total damage was estimated by Hanover police at $2,375.

Treated at the Hanover General Hospital and then released were: Joann Humbert, 22, of 5 West High St., New Oxford, who suffered bruises and contusions of the left hip, and Thelma Sieg, 23, Hanover R. 5, who had contusions of the right leg and ankle.

Police reported drivers involved were Sallie M. Bentzel, 20, Hanover R. 5, and Robert C. Young, 24, of Hanover.

Both of the injured women were in the Bentzel-driven car. The same car, police said, sideswiped a utility pole, hit a pole on Schultz's Used Car Lot and struck a used car parked there, pushing it into another parked vehicle, and then went through a fence and into a field on the Howard Wetzel property.

After the planning meeting, the girls enjoyed toasted sandwiches and played games. The next meeting will be held at the home of Sandy Ernst, R. 5, on Tuesday, June 27, at 1 o'clock, where the second phase of outdoor cooking will be undertaken. The girls are asked to bring their own place setting and are reminded to start a nature collection. The leaders present were Mrs. Helen Tunison and her assistants, Mrs. Edward Scott and Mrs. Joseph Davies.

Ridgeview 4-H Ponytails outdoor cooking project led by Mrs. Jack W. Malcolm met Monday evening at 6:30 on the Heltzel farm. There were nine members present. The group learned to build a fireplace fire, toast bacon twists and make a hot milk drink in their "billy cans." A demonstration of the billy can was given by Janet Heltzel. A nature game, led by Anna Heltzel, was enjoyed by all. A discussion of nature collections was led by Mrs. Malcolm. The next outing will be June 27 at 9:30 a.m. with Mrs. Helen Tunison as guest.

The annual treat of strawberries and cake to all guests in the county home was served by the Gettysburg WCTU Wednesday afternoon. The ladies who served the treat were Mrs. Cora Berkey, Mrs. Mary Zepp and Mrs. Milton Remmel.

Lt. and Mrs. Frederick A. Rogers and children, Greg, Paula, Brad and Ryan, Monterey, Calif., are visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Samuel F. Swope, R. 2, and Mrs. Charles E. Weikert, E. Middle St. They will be in Gettysburg for an indefinite time.

Mrs. Anna Wenschhof, Barlow St., celebrated her 60th birthday Wednesday. As a gift she received a long distance phone call from Mrs. Larry C. Lookenbill, her daughter, in Oceanside, Calif. A birthday supper was also held in her honor by Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bishop, R. 2, her son-in-law and daughter. Immediate relatives were present.

Circle Two of the Presbyterian Church met Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs. A. H. Good, R. 4, for a covered dish supper. There were 11 members present and the co-hostess was Mrs. Howard Ellidge. The next meeting will be September 6 at the Presbyterian Church in the form of a covered dish supper.

CELEBRATES ANNIVERSARY

JERUSALEM (AP) — Adolf Eichmann testified today he tried to save Europe's Jews by creating a homeland for them on the island of Madagascar.

The former Gestapo lieutenant colonel said he conceived the "Madagascar plan" that was jugged around in high Nazi circles in 1940 but never got past the paper stage.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Japan's Prime Minister Hayato Ikeda said today it would be a "gross misjudgment" to think democratic government cannot grow in Japan or that Japan may turn Communist.

In a speech for a National Press Club luncheon, Ikeda said democratic principles have so deeply penetrated the Japanese people that "their devotion to these principles can never be weakened."

WASHINGTON (AP) — U.S. officials today viewed Soviet Premier Khrushchev's latest declaration on East-West issues as a step in his post-Vienna cold war campaign. Secretary of State Dean Rusk was slated to voice the U.S. government's views at an afternoon news conference.

MOSCOW (AP) — Nikita Khrushchev said Wednesday night that the Soviet Union has developed quite a few nuclear weapons that need testing and will resume nuclear tests immediately if the United States does.

LONDON (AP) — Former Queen Marie of Yugoslavia died today after a prolonged illness. She was 61. The Yugoslavian royal dynasty was overthrown by Marshal Tito in 1945. At that time the queen's eldest son, Peter, was the king, although in exile.

HARRISBURG (AP) — Speaker of the House Hiram G. Andrews, 84, took a spill outside a hotel here Wednesday night and received a severe cut on his head.

He reportedly slipped while entering a taxi cab and struck his head on the sharp edge of one of the cab's doors. Authorities at Harrisburg Hospital said the cut required six stitches. He was treated and released.

said he was impressed with the "latent beauty" of the town's buildings and the "basically good architecture."

He said he is proposing few structural changes and noted the YWCA building will not be recommended for any change while only one sketch involved changes that are "rather drastic."

He said neon signs do not fit into the plan and while there will be signs they should be in proper scale and of the right type. Each property in the first block of each main street and each business property in the second block is being studied individually and about half of the sketches are ready, he said. No suggested changes involve any great cost.

At the close of the meeting, which was arranged by the dinner and hospitality committee headed by Mrs. Forrest Craver, Pontius said that when the project here is completed, its report will be compiled in a single volume and states and communities throughout the nation will be "bombed with the Gettysburg story — and I guess your travel bureau won't object to that."

FIRE DAMAGES KNOUSE SHED NEAR QUINCY

Firemen from four companies battled a Wertz Orchards packing house blaze at Quincy to a standstill Tuesday evening and saved the main operating portion of the building, then requested the state police fire marshal's office to investigate the blaze.

No immediate cause of the fire could be determined.

Neither were firm damage estimates available, although owner M. E. Knoouse of Peach Glen said today he felt the loss would run from $10,000 to $15,000.

FIREMEN INJURED

The fire was costly in injuries and equipment. Allen M. Rowe, captain of Waynesboro's Mechanics Company, was hospitalized with a possible fracture of the lower back after he fell down 10 steps, and four others were known treated for lesser injuries.

The Blue Ridge Summit tank truck broke down enroute to the fire and Chief Harry McClain said today the estimated cost of repair is $45.

Firemen generally credited the action of orchard workers in ferrying water to the scene in spray rig tanks with turning the tide against the blaze which fed from boxes, baskets and liners stored in the building.

ASKED MORE HELP

The first alarm went in to Waynesboro shortly before 8 p.m. Fire Chief Orlov Helm said he began to radio for help soon as the community pumper cleared the Church Street hill and he saw the volume of smoke.

Mont Alto, Greencastle and Blue Ridge Summit were summoned.

The fire was the second to threaten Knoouse interests this year. On March 10, a $300,000 blaze destroyed the storage building of the Knoouse Foods Cooperative at Peach Glen. The cause there was never determined.

Knoouse said the fire at Wertz Orchards will have little effect on this year's operations since the packing machinery there appears intact.

MORE CASES

charges were dismissed, two were acquitted by the court and three by juries. 74 pleaded guilty, 20 were found guilty by the court and 11 found guilty by juries. Four persons went to state prisons, seven were placed on probation or received suspended sentences. 53 went to jails or workhouses, 22 paid fines or costs only and 19 received other sentences, such as requirement that they pay support.

During the first two terms of 1961, 22 cases were dismissed, six defendants acquitted by juries. One hundred pleas of guilty were entered, 28 were found guilty by the court and 14 by juries. One person, Elmo Smith, in a case brought here from another county, received the death penalty. Five went to state prisons, 19 were placed on parole or given suspended sentences, 63 went to the local jail or the Allegheny County workhouse, 32 paid fines or costs only and 22 received orders to provide support.

"TEACH THEM"

Not only should children be taught . . . the things found in a book . . . they should be schooled in other things . . . some parents overlook . . . I'm writing of the priceless . . . values of this life . . . the things taken for granted . . . that quell the storms of strife . . . we should acquaint them with the truth . . . and just how much it means . . . for truth can always beautify . . . life's most sordid scenes . . . faith and hope should be explained . . . this subject is a must . . . because without them life would be . . . a valley of disgust . . . yes, these are things children must learn . . . to reach the heights above . . . and last, but by all means not least . . . teach them, teach them to love.

Wedding

MRS. JONES

Miss Ileana V. Zagars, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Waldemar Zagars, 50 W. Broadway, became the bride of Kimball M. Jones, son of Hazen Jones, Melrose, Mass., in Christ Chapel, Gettysburg College, Saturday afternoon at 4 o'clock.

The single-ring ceremony was performed by the bride's pastor, Rev. Dr. Robert Koons. The church was decorated with palms, ferns, candelabra and white satin bows. The altar flowers were white delphinium, madonna lilies and mums.

Preceding the ceremony David Pratt, Newport, R. I., presented an organ recital. The soloist, Miss Rita Dzina-Zaprawski, Philadelphia, sang "Musu Tevs" (The Lord's Prayer) by O. Neimanis and "Sveta Mila" (The Sacred Love) by Lucia Garuta, both Latvian composers. The procession was "St. Anthony's Chorale" by Haydn and the recessional was "The Trumpet Tune" by Henry Purcell.

GIVEN BY FATHER

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of white Irish linen with Irish lace inserts, fashioned princess style, with a deep neckline, bracelet-length sleeves and chapel train. Her veil of silk organza was attached to a coronet of Irish lace and she carried a cascade bouquet of madonna lilies, stephanotis and ivy with white streamers. Her only jewelry was a string of pearls, a gift of the bridegroom. The bride was attended by Miss Janet Staudt, Cleveland, O., and three bridesmaids, Miss Rebecca Bulkey, Cleveland, O.; Miss Deborah Lundstrom, Evanston, Ill.; and Miss Ann Endicott Monks, Lincoln, Mass. The attendants wore identical afternoon gowns of turquoise linen fashioned with bouffant skirts and applique embroidery. All wore matching headresses with veils, matching linen pumps and carried bouquets of gold and salmon colored carnations with ivy and streamers.

The bridegroom had as his best man his brother, Dana Jones, of Sudbury, Mass. The ushers were Walter Cairns, Marblehead, Mass., and brothers of the bride, Gunars V. Zagars and Arnold F. Zagars.

TO RESIDE IN MASS

A reception was held at the bride's home following the service at which out-of-state guests were from Massachusetts, Rhode Island, New Hampshire, New York, New Jersey, Delaware, Maryland, Washington, D. C., North Dakota, Ohio and Illinois. Following a wedding trip the couple will reside in Dedham, Mass.

Mrs. Jones graduated from Shipley School, Bryn Mawr, and from Wellesley College, Wellesley, Mass. She is a member of Phi Beta Kappa and Sigma Xi. She will do graduate work at Tufts University and is presently employed there as a research assistant in nuclear physics.

Bryan Takes

governor's call for better district organization."

The experience and knowledge in the field of school district organization to which Boehm referred included the fact that Bryan's doctoral dissertation was based on school reorganization and contained many facets of the proposed new education bills. From 1956-1958, he was director of the Bureau of School District Reorganization and established the present standards and regulations for reorganization. He also has served on a national committee on school district reorganization and is considered a national, as well as a state, authority on the subject.

Other background experience for the new post includes service as director of the Intermediate Unit for School Administration, director of the Bureau of Leadership and Educational Planning and director of the Bureau of School Business Services.

TO INCREASE FUNCTION

During his years in the Department of Public Instruction, he planned and carried out numerous state-wide conferences on curriculum, certification and educational planning. He also has served as advisor on school law to school administrators and school boards, prepared the $400 million state budget for schools and was in charge of computing and paying out to school districts all state subsidies.

In addition to having numerous articles published on educational problems, he has served on state and national advisory committees on school finance, management, transportation, planning and reorganization.

Dr. Bryan said today that under his administration the School District Organization Bureau, which has been a service agency to school districts forming joint, merged or union districts, will increase its function to implement the new standards for reorganization.

SUCCEEDS CLEAVER

He will replace Roy A. Cleaver, who is retiring as acting director of the bureau. Bryan is a graduate of Washington and Jefferson College and received his doctorate from the University of Pennsylvania.

He has two brothers who also are administrators in education. One is Dr. Fred E. Bryan, superintendent of the Harrisburg schools, and the other is Dr. Charles H. Bryan, superintendent of schools at Bethpage, N. Y.

Dr. Bryan will be replaced as director of school business services by Dr. Harold O. Speidel, now coordinator for distressed school districts. Speidel, former assistant superintendent of Schuylkill County schools, joined the state department last October.

LOCAL WOMAN IN 3RD ROUND

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—The Pennsylvania State Women's Golf Championship moved into the quarterfinal round today with Merion's Alice Gray making it by the skin of her teeth.

Miss Gray defeated Virginia Ott of Williamsport Wednesday in the only one of eight contests to go to the 18th green during heavy rain at the Huntingdon Valley Country Club. She meets Mrs. William Hamilton of Philadelphia who defeated Mrs. Arthur J. Wilkie, Whitmarsh Valley, 6 and 4.

Quarterfinal matches scheduled for Wednesday afternoon were all rained out and the round was rescheduled for today. The 36-hole final will be played Saturday.

Miss Gray, around in 40-42-82 to 41-42-83, gained her biggest lead by putting from eight feet for birdie two on the third for a three up.

OTHERS ADVANCING

Others who advanced Wednesday included Betty Fehl of Reading, Miss Fehl, a former holder of the championship, scored a 77 against 79 for Mrs. John Dyson of Hazleton and led all the way in a 3 and 1 victory. The pair had the best scores of the day.

Mrs. Harton Semple, Pittsburgh, beat Mrs. Leon Rose, Philadelphia, 5 and 4. She'll meet Miss Fehl in the quarterfinals.

Ann Rutherford of Lebanon, formerly of Gettysburg, advanced by defeating Mrs. Frank A. O'Neill, of Huntingdon Valley, 4 and 3. Miss Rutherford rounded the turn 1 up and went to 3 up by the 14th where Mrs. O'Neill trapped to the left. Miss Rutherford plays Mrs. Earle Scott of Philadelphia who beat Mrs. George Hauptfuhrer, also of Philadelphia, 4 and 3.

State Colleges Are Made Repositories

HARRISBURG (AP)—Pennsylvania's 14 state colleges are on their way to becoming repositories of information and materials about the cultural historical traditions of the state.

Each was designated a Pennsylvania history and culture center Wednesday by Superintendent of Public Instruction Charles H. Boehm. It marks the beginning of a program to make available to all students sources of knowledge about their own state.

Presents Bust To Ike

Former President Eisenhower views the mahogany bust presented in behalf of the German Foreign Policy Society by German Ambassador Wilhelm G. Grewe, center, while the sculptress, Mrs. Annie Hoskin-Hempel, studies the General's reaction. Eisenhower complimented the artist, noting that while the bust allowed him more hair than he had, it was the "finest likeness" he had seen. The formal presentation took place this morning. MAN MISSING, 3 ARE SAVED IN EXPLOSION

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP)—Three men, rescued Wednesday from the "loneliest lighthouse in the world," said they lived on a couple of cans of beans since an explosion rocked the Stannard Rock lighthouse in Lake Superior Sunday.

Chances that a fourth man still was alive were remote, the Coast Guard reported.

Missing was William A. Maxwell, 34, Houghton, Mich., father of five. Maxwell, an engineman first class, reportedly was still inside the tower. A search for him was impossible because of fumes from a raging fire in the lighthouse's coal storage bin.

2 ARE UNINJURED

Seaman Walter E. Scobie, 22, Troy, Mich., and Richard A. Horne, 18, New York, a seaman's apprentice, were not injured.

The blast was set off, by the Coast Guard said, by gasoline and propane gas.

A Coast Guard unit near Hancock, Mich., talked to Scobie and Horne, who said they had made a tent of tarpaulin on the apron outside the tower.

They said Maxwell was at the base of the tower, near the explosion, and Daniels apparently was seated in the doorway of one of the rooms in the tower. When the flames and shock from the explosion came up the passage-way, Daniels received the brunt of it, the men said.

Scobie and Horne were in rooms of the 102-foot tower. Scobie said he was hurled out of bed. Horne was in the room behind Daniels.

Daniels was being treated for burns and lacerations at a hospital at Keweenaw, Mich.

JUDGE BEGINS STRIKE MOVE FOR MORE HELP

NORRISTOWN, Pa. (AP)—President Judge William F. Dannehower of Montgomery County Court has canceled his current courtroom schedule in a move court attendants call a kind of a strike to underline his demand for more judicial help.

Judge Dannehower said Wednesday that "if we don't get more judicial help I'll clear up what I have on my desk and then retire." The judge, who will be 71 next month, has been on the bench for nearly 30 years. His term expires in January, 1964.

Right now he is staying in his chambers, and writing opinions. The criminal cases he was scheduled to hear have been reset for other judges, a source in the district attorney's office said.

ASKS AID

Judge Dannehower Wednesday made public a letter he sent to Gov. David L. Lawrence, asking the chief executive's help in getting two new judges.

Dannehower cited in the letter "increasing legal business, a congested court calendar and a backlog of civil cases."

"Four judges cannot handle this great volume of business," he said.

There was no immediate comment from Lawrence.

TELLS OF GAMBLING

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Mickey Cohen, testifying at his federal income tax evasion trial, said Wednesday that he ran a big-time gambling operation here in the 1940s.

Cohen said he even had an undercover casino in the Ambassador Hotel in Los Angeles for a time, earning $15,000 to $20,000 a month from it.

News Reading Is Urged For Pupils

SHIPPENSBURG — In talks this week before almost 200 elementary school teachers and administrators, Dr. Eleanor Johnson, editor-in-chief of My Weekly Reader, called for greater emphasis on news reading in the school curriculum and for a crusade to give America's children their literary heritage.

Dr. Johnson was the consultant for the first two days of the five day conference which opened Monday, June 19, at Shippensburg State college under the sponsorship of the college's department of elementary education. The annual conference is considering "Reading and Personal Adjustment" this year.

Dr. Roma Gans, author of books on reading and professor emeritus of Teachers College, Columbia University, is serving as the guest consultant for the Thursday and Friday sessions.

In one address, Dr. Johnson told the educators that news reading must be an integral part of the new curriculum. "News reading," she said, "sparks the language arts, it updates science, and it expands the social studies and keeps the textbooks up to date."

3 County Couples Sued On Freezers

Delmar Food Service Corporation of Baltimore today brought suit against three Adams County couples claiming they have not paid for home freezers installed by the Baltimore company last year.

In each case the company, according to the actions in assumpsit filed for it in the prothonotary's office here, is seeking $1,483.20 plus interest and the costs of the suit. The defendants are Fred L. and Marie C. Shaffer, New Oxford R. 2; Roy L. and Lucille C. Wentz, Littlestown R. 1; and Robert E. and Lillian E. Distin, New Oxford R. 1.

According to the papers filed by Atty. H. Thomas Pyle, the Delmar Food Service entered into contracts with the couples, two of them in August and one early in September, to place at the homes freezers for which the delivered price was $1,059, sales tax, $31.77 and finance charges $392.43. The amount was to be paid off in 36 monthly installments of $41.20 each.

According to the complaints none of the installments was paid by any of the three couples.

7 KILLED IN 2 EXPLOSIONS

DETROIT, Mich. (AP)—Seven persons were killed in separate industrial explosions Wednesday in suburban Detroit and Mitchell, Ind.

A blast turned a 70-by-100-foot oxygen plant of the Linde Division of Union Carbide Corp. in Ecorse, Mich., into a "ball of fire." It claimed lives of three men, fathers of a total of eight children.

Four workers were killed and at least a dozen injured when a blast, believed caused by an accumulation of natural gas, demolished an almost-completed building at the Lehigh Portland Cement Co. plant at Mitchell.

One of the Indiana dead was a cleaning woman. The others were construction workers who had been building the 60-by-90-foot building where trucks were to be weighed in and out of the cement plant.

CIUDAD TRUJILLO, Dominican Republic (AP)—The first person tried for the assassination of Generalissimo Rafael Trujillo has been found guilty.

The defendant was former Maj. Gen. Jose Rene Roman Fernandez, former minister of defense. He faces prison or death.

schools of both Memorial Day and Veterans Day. Maj. John H. Runkle, legislative committee chairman of the state SUV, held at the convention: "As the years go by, more and more school boards have come to ignore the significance of these days, letting them pass as just another day of the week, with classes as usual."

Copies of the resolution are to be sent to all legislators and to all veteran groups in the state.

SUCCEEDS MacPHERSON

The new department commander, Elton Koch, succeeds O. G. MacPherson, Gettysburg R. 1, as state commander. Others officers elected were the Rev. Richard O. Partington, Lafayette Hill, senior vice commander; John H. Stark, Gettysburg, junior vice commander; Lester A. Kern, Carlisle; J. Franklin Dawson, Elwood City, and Herman Phebler, Philadelphia, council members; John C. Yocum, Lansdowne, department counselor; C. LeRoy Stoudt, Reading, chief of staff; Robert U. Wehner, Hellerstown, chaplain; R. Vernon Watts, New Cumberland, patriotic instructor; William Hosemer, Chester, personal aide; Ivan E. Frantz, York, press correspondent, and Chester S. Shriver, Gettysburg, secretary-treasurer, a post he has held since 1957.

A committee is to be appointed to determine whether the 1962 encampment shall be held in York or Pittsburgh. Present planning calls for the 1963 convention to be held in Gettysburg.

Mrs. Catherine Hilbert, Bethlehem, was elected president of the Auxiliary of the SUV at its encampment held simultaneously at Harrisburg. Mrs. Edna Smith, Erie, was named department president of the Woman's Relief Corps of the GAR and Mrs. Martha Heiber, Allison Park, near Pittsburgh, was elected president of the Ladies of the Grand Army of the Republic.

REVOKES FELLOWSHIP

WASHINGTON (AP)—The National Science Foundation, under strong pressure from the chairmen of two congressional committees, has revoked a $3,800 government fellowship for Edward Yellin.

Yellin, now a student at the University of Illinois, was convicted last year of contempt of Congress for refusing to answer questions about Communist party membership put to him by a House subcommittee on un-American activities.

Miss Jane Elizabeth Rice
Marries Philip M. Jones; Ceremony Performed In Christ Lutheran Church Here: In a floral setting of green and white and with all her attendants in white, the marriage of Miss Jane Elizabeth Rice, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Edmund Rice, of Biglerville, to Philip Millard
Jones, son of Mr. and Mrs. M. C.
Jones, of Hanover, was solemnized Saturday evening at 7:30 o'clock in Christ Lutheran Church. The Rev. Dwight F.
Putnam, pastor of the church, performed the ceremony, assisted by the Rev. Clark S.
Smith, of York. The single ring ceremony of the church was used.

Employers Are Asked To Aid
Registration: The Adams County Council of Defense through its chairman, Judge W. C. Sheely, issued a public request to employers in the county to make special arrangements for young men who are required to register for military training on July 1 to get off work for a sufficient amount of time to permit them to go one of the two selective service board offices in the county to register.

The county council at the same time appealed to countians generally to display the American flag on the second registration day, July 1, when all young men who came of age since the other registration last October will be listed under the Selective Service Act.

U. S. Condemns Nazi Attack
On Russia: The United States condemned Germany's "treacherous attack" on Russia today and declared that "any rallying of the forces opposing Hitlerism would rebound to the benefit of American defense and security."

The statement made by Sumner Welles, undersecretary of State, after he had conferred
open the question of whether lease-lend aid would be given to Soviet Russia.

ON PARKING YOUR WORRIES
I once read an article about parking your worries while you sleep.

But why park them? There they will be in the morning when you awaken into a bright new day. You don't have to look up your worries. No one is going to steal them. Everybody has his or her own special brand.

If you park them, you will only have them on your hands again.

So my advice is to end your worries with the day and take thoughts to bed with you. Say to your worries: "Old fellows, you have been barking at my heels all day, now off with you! I won't need you tomorrow, and when tomorrow comes you won't be able to find me—for I won't be where you will be."

One of the loveliest stories I have ever read was Robert Herrick's "The Master of the Inn."
It told of a man who early became disappointed and his heart filled with bitterness. But he determined to empty it and fill his heart, instead, with beauty, through service. So he established an inn for the care of sick souls. And no one ever came but he left with the sweetness and beauty of the Master's spirit in his life and went back to his work a new man.

When we lead our worries out, we forget that other people have worries too. And too many worries exhibited is like getting too many dogs together in one place —there is liable to be a fight!

Think of something, read something, or do something to put in the place of your worries that will crowd them all out.

If you try to make people happy, if you forget your own troubles, if you stand free and independent for what you feel is right, you will be cared for and know what happiness and success is right. No one will need to tell you.

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "On And On" Protected, 1961, by The George Matthew Adams Service.

Town Refuses To Pay For New Storm Sewer: By a unanimous vote of the six councilmen present, the Gettysburg borough fathers at a special meeting on Monday evening balked at spending sums estimated at from $800 to $5,500 for a storm sewer on Buford Avenue which the state highway department asked as a preliminary to State improvements on Buford Avenue and Chambersburg Street.

J. Paul Ambler, state highway district engineer, who appeared before council in connection with the matter, said he could not tell what view the department will now take of the proposed improvements which have been pending for several months.

Relief Corps Appointments Are Announced: The fifty-eighth annual encampment of the Woman's Relief Corps of Pennsylvania officially opened this morning at 9 o'clock in the Odd Fellows Hall, Chambersburg street. Mrs. Anna
Kresge, of Bethlehem, senior aid, opened the convention session and presented Mrs. Helen Kline, of Allentown, Pennsylvania department president. Seventy-six delegates had registered before noon.

Mrs. Kline presented three past national presidents and then the past state department president and her own official family.

Mrs. Katherine Fauber, of Lancaster, sang "This Field of Glory."

the Pennsylvania Department of the Sons of Veterans approved a resolution providing for participation of representatives of that organization in the dedication here next Wednesday of the site

IS PROMISED CONSIDERATION

By JOHN KOENIG JR.

Associated Press Special Service
WASHINGTON (AP) — Rep.
Francis E. Walter, D-Pa., said today he had been assured that House Judiciary Committee consideration will be given to his bill to boost the House membership.

Walter said the bill, if and when reported out of the committee, would add four members. As introduced, it added only three to bring the membership to 438.

In either form, the measure, if approved would reduce from three to two the number of members Pennsylvania would lose in the redistricting called for by the 1960 census.

CITE ADVANTAGES

He said three added members would provide for representation for the new states of Alaska and Hawaii without depriving any of other state of any House seat for this purpose.

A fourth new member, Walter said, would keep total membership at an odd, rather than an even, number, so that no tie vote could result if all members voted.

Reducing Pennsylvania's House membership from 30 to 27—a job given to the State Legislature—has had political leaders in the state stumped since the census

Battles? Yes, you have 'em there

With your warriors of tin;

An' the fort's your rockin' chair,

That they allus storm an' win.

There are some think gettin' old

Is a reason to be sad,

But with youngsters in the fold

NO OFFICIAL PLAN

While Walter, dean of Pennsylvania Democrats in the House, held out hope for boosting the total House membership, Rep. Robert J. Corbett, R-Pa., while hopeful for success of Walter's proposal, said Republicans have given consideration to making adjustments to a 27-member Pennsylvania House delegation.

He said no official plans have been advanced but a number of recommendations have been received from various interested groups.

Corbett, chairman of an informal three-member committee of Republicans named to look into redistricting, said it had been suggested that Pennsylvania Legislature proceed create 27 new districts, and should the state lose only two seats, a 28th member could be elected at-large.

At the same time, Corbett said he is preparing a bill to require the Census Bureau to redistrict any state that had not completed its job within 90 days of the primary election date on which the voters first would choose candidates for Congress.

CHICAGO HAS BIGGEST DAY ON WEDNESDAY

CHICAGO (AP) — Wednesday was the biggest major league baseball day in Chicago history and it might have been the day the White Sox decided to make a serious run for the 1961 American League pennant.

The White Sox, who only June 11th were in 10th and last place, Wednesday night moved to within striking distance of first place with a homer-cramped, 15-3, 11-1 twin victory over the Cleveland Indians.

The Hose ran their winning ways to six in a row and 13 decisions in 14 starts after Chicago area fans had been treated to four major league games in a single day.

CUBS LOSE
Earlier, the Cubs dropped an afternoon doubleheader to Los Angeles' Dodgers, 4-1 and 4-2 before, 12,365 paid at Wrigley Field. The Sox sweep over the Indians was watched by a sellout Comiskey Park crowd of 45,125, including $7,558 paid and 7,567 Combined Jewish Appeal guests.

When their current streak began, the White Sox were in 10th place, 15½ games off the pace. They have moved up to within 10 games of the first-place Detroit Tigers and are only one game out of fourth place.

This is no surprise to either General Manager Hank Greenberg or field manager Al Lopez. Said Greenberg: "This is just the law of averages asserting itself. We were like a .300 hitter batting .200. You know such a hitter is going to get back up to .300—and in the process, he'll be batting .400 over a good stretch. That's just what we're doing now."

Said Lopez: "There were a lot of people souring on us early when we were floundering. I never gave up, because I knew we were a good ball club. I'm not worried about making the first division now. If we can keep going, we'll still make a helluva run for first place."

YOUNG TORRE HAS APPROVAL OF BURDETTE

MILWAUKEE (AP) — Just a couple of years ago a young ballplayer followed the advice of a scout and turned to catching. Today, at the tender age of 20, Joe Torre is starting for the Milwaukee Braves.

"The kid is phenomenal," said veteran Lew Burdette in praise of his new battery mate after firing a five-hitter Wednesday night in a 5-3 victory over the San Francisco Giants.

"It's difficult to realize Joe has had only a year in minor league ball," Burdette said. "He acts like he's had a lot more experience. He's done a good job—your'll certainly not get any complaints from any of us pitchers."

FRANK'S BROTHER
Torre, brother of former Milwaukee first baseman Frank Torre, pitched and played the infield in high school. He then played sandlot ball around his home in Brooklyn, N.Y., but Braves scout John (Honey) Russell was unimpressed.

Noting the kid weighed 240 pounds, Russell suggested Torre try to make the grade as a catcher. After watching him in a few games, Russell quickly signed the youngster for a $15,000 bonus.

In 30 games, Torre has collected 31 hits for a .287 average. He has hit six homers, driven in 13 runs and scored 11. His sixth homer was a two-run blast which helped Burdette to beat the Giants.

LARKER PUT OUT OF ACTION IN FIST FIGHT

LOS ANGELES (AP) — A fist-fight between Dodger shortstop Maury Wills and his teammate, first baseman Norm Larker put Wills out of action for two days last week, the Los Angeles Examiner reported today in a copy-righted story.

News of the fight leaked out despite apparent efforts of the Dodger front office to conceal the incident, which occurred June 15 before the first game against the Cubs in Los Angeles.

The story was broken here by Bob Hunter, Examiner baseball writer.

CUBS GIVE STORY

A member of the Cubs, not sworn to secrecy, let Hunter in on the closely guarded secret.

Hunter told this story: It started while Larker, hitting fungoes during infield practice, drove several balls very close to Wills.

Wills, resenting the proximity of the drives to him, concluded that Larker was trying to hit him and finally fired a ball at the first baseman, hitting him in the leg.

As they went to the clubhouse for the pregame meeting the fight broke out. Gil Hodges stepped in to break it up and was struck on the nose. Frank Howard, rushing in to stop the battle, slipped and fell on his back.

REDS, DODGERS WIN; BRAVES BEAT GIANTS

By ED WILKS

Associated Press Sports Writer

The Milwaukee Braves, matching their longest winning streak of the season with their third straight victory, beat third place San Francisco 5-3 behind right-hander Lew Burdette Wednesday night while first place Cincinnati rapped St. Louis 9-2.

The Los Angeles Dodgers won a doubleheader from the Chicago Cubs 4-1 and 4-2, Pittsburgh and Philadelphia were rained out.

SHERRY IS STAR

Burdette (6-5) followed up a 2-1, five-hit victory over Los Angeles in his last start with a five-hit decision over the Giants, who now trail by three games. The big right-hander retired 11 batters in a row after the Giants broke a 2-2 tie with Willie Mays' 14th home run in the sixth inning.

The Reds took a 2-1 lead in the first inning against loser Ernie Broglio (6-8) and romped in as Gus Bell and Frank Robinson each hit a homer and drove in five runs between them.

Reliever Larry Sherry saved both games for the Dodgers. He struck out pinch hitter Ed Bouchee and Jerry Kindall with two on in the ninth inning of the opener, saving the victory for Stan Williams (6-6). Then he blanked the Cubs on one hit over 3-1 innings in relief of southpaw Johnny Podres (7-1) in the second game.

Owens, left the club in spring training after a dispute with General Manager John Quinn. He recently changed his mind about quitting the Phillies and has been conditioning with the Phillies' Williamsport farm team of the Class A Eastern League.

The Phillies will open a four-game series at Forbes Field Friday night with the Pittsburgh Pirates on the heels of a two-game series between the two clubs in Philadelphia.

RAINED OUT

Actually, the two teams had been scheduled to play three games here but Wednesday's contest was rained out and will be rescheduled later.

The Pirates defeated the Phillies 6-2 in the opener here Tuesday night. They'll conclude the series here tonight with the Pirates Bob Friend (7-7) facing John Buzard (2-7).

Meanwhile, Pirates' manager Danny Murtaugh was honored on Wednesday by the Philadelphia Sports Writers Association.

"Don't count the Bucs out yet," Murtaugh told the group. "Before this year is out you're to hear from this club of ours."

"Of the six contending teams we're the only one that hasn't had a hot streak."

The Pirates, last year's world champions, are in fourth place in the National League, six games out of first.

In the other bill—exempting the city's light opera company from the Blue Laws—the Senate added drama. The House concurred in this revision, 176-29.

OWENS AGREES TO COME BACK TO PHILLIES

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — The Philadelphia Phillies announced today that right-hander Jim Owens will rejoin the club in Pittsburgh Friday night.

Bainbridge Gets Lacrosse Honors

Richardson Bainbridge, Merion, Gettysburg College's outstanding defensive and attack lacrosse player, was given honorable mention All-American by the Wheatley Sports Federation, it was announced today by Albert W. Twitcheil, president of the United States Intercollegiate Lacrosse Association.

Bainbridge was the sparkplug of the Bullet defense during the 1961 campaign. At various times throughout the season he was moved to attack from where he rammed through six goals. Bainbridge was named primarily for his defensive work.

S-M PROGRAM AT LINCOLN

Johnny Mackinson, fresh from his fourth feature race triumph of the season, has closed within 25 points of Bobby Hersh in their keen duel for the 1961 sportsman-modified track title at Lincoln Speedway, near Abbottstown.

The York County leadfooters return to the Pigeon Hills oval Saturday night at 8 o'clock along with all the other S-M favorites, including Pee Wee Poblites, Moe Harden, Ray Kable, Ronnie Cranston and Joe Davis, among others.

Hersh, driving jalopy No. 39, an Oldsmobile power plant, is out in front in sportsman-modified points with 345. Mackinson ranks second in 1960, a Chevrolet-powered car, with 320 points.

Paul Keller (Car 47) and Johnny Laughman (111), meanwhile, are waging a battle royal for the point lead in the novice (strictly stock) division. Keller leads although Laughman is closing fast after his second feature win of the campaign last Saturday.

Lincoln's S-M and strictly stock regulars will share the bill with NASCAR late models Saturday, July 1. The tripleheader program carded for that night has two 10-lap qualifying heats and a 100-lap feature planned for the late models as well as a full slate for the sportsman-modified and a 25-lap main encounter for the stockers.

Jim Reed, three-time NASCAR short track champion, has signified his intentions of competing in the late model race while Hersh, the S-M favorite, will be on hand in a 1961 Buick.

Sievers Leads Sox To Twin Win; Mantle Hits 2 HR's

By ED WILKS

Associated Press Sports Writer

The Chicago White Sox, winning 13 of their last 14 games, swept a two-night doubleheader from third place Cleveland 15-3 and 11-1 Wednesday night. Roy Sievers and Al Smith hammered five home runs between them for the sixth-place Sox, with Sievers knocking in seven runs in the opener on a pair of homers, one a pinch-hit grand slam.

Detroit was rained out at Washington and the Tigers' lead was trimmed to one game by New York. The Yankees, scoring all their runs on two homers by Mickey Mantle, won 5-3 at Kansas City. Baltimore defeated Minnesota 11-5, scoring seven runs in the ninth; and the Los Angeles Angels beat Boston 5-1, ending the Red Sox' streak at six games.

Both of Sievers' first-game shots were off reliever Johnny Antonelli, with the slam coming in an eight-un fourth inning that chased loser Gary Bell (4-8).

Mantle hit a three-run homer in the first inning at Kansas City and then wrapped it up for the Yanks with his 22nd home run, with a man on, in the seventh off Bob Shaw (3-6). Pete Daley (5-9) was the winner.

Jim Gentile drove in three runs, one with a homer, for the Orioles. They came from behind in the ninth when reliever Chuck Stobbs hit one batter and walked another with the bases loaded.

Right-hander Ken McBride (6-5) allowed seven hits while beating the Red Sox and broke a 1-1 tie with a single in the fourth inning off rookie Don Schwall, who lost his first against five victories.

Nicklaus Heads Big Ten Group

LAFAYETTE, Ind. (AP)—Junior Jack Nicklaus of Ohio State, who says this is the last time he will try to win the national collegiate golf championship, led a massive Big Ten contingent into today's third round of the NCAA tourney.

Nicklaus, former National Amateur champion, was one of eight Big Ten players—exactly half the field—that survived Wednesday's two rounds.

Nicklaus, obviously tired after shooting the best amateur score in the U.S. Open last week for the second straight year, had to come from behind against both of Wednesday's opponents.

He finally overpowered Dick Carmody of Southern California and Jimmy Gabrielsen of Georgia by the same margin, 4 and 3.

Two-thirds of the Rhodes scholarships awarded to Ameridians for study at Oxford University in England during the last 16 years went to young men who had been Boy Scouts.

ATTACKS ON TV PROGRAMS CUT PUBLICITY

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP TV-Radio Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — Television programs have been getting their lumps lately from two sides. During the past week Senate subcommittee hearings have pummeled from one side and Federal Communications Commission hearing from the other at dreary formula programming practice and dedication to what one witness called "sin, sex and skulls."

One immediate effect of the two hearings, which have been making headlines in newspapers throughout the country as well as receiving coverage in network TV news shows, has been a marked drop-off in the quantity of the usual publicity handouts from the three major networks touting upcoming fall series, most of which fall into the very categories under fire.

However, CBS decided it was the ideal time to announce another new show in its fall lineup: "Kideo Village," a children's hour version of its daytime audience participation show based on the parlor game parchesi. Anyway, it's not a violent program.

FASHIONS IN COMEDY

Comedienne Nancy Walker, one of the stars of Broadway's "Do Re Mi" and a guest on En Sullivan's show next Shmney night, says that there are fashions in comedy just as there are in clothes.

"Physical comedy is out now," explained the pint-sized performer. "You don't find many people working with props and using their bodies instead of words for laughs."

The change became noticeable four or five years ago, she said, when writers stopped turning out pure comedy shows.

"I've been changing my style to meet it," she continued. "I've started to move into areas that are not comedic but involve acting."

Recommended tonight: "Our Durable Diplomats," ABC, 10:30-11 (EDT)—a "Close-Up" study of two young couples in the foreign service; CBS Reports, 10-11—repeat of "The Year of the Polar," about the atom-powered submarine.

PEARY DAY TO BE OBSERVED

WASHINGTON (AP)—A resolution authorizing President Kennedy to proclaim April 6 as National Peary Day was proposed today by Sen. Hugh Scott, R-Pa.

The observance would honor the memory of Admiral Robert E. Peary, a Cresson, Pa., native and the naval officer who discovered the North Pole.

Recounting Peary's career, Scott said Peary started exploring parts of Greenland in 1886 at the age of 30 and in 1891 the Philadelphia Academy of Natural Sciences put him in charge of a polar expedition.

From then on until he was 52, his life centered around exploration in the cold northern latitudes Scott said.

He said Peary made his first try for the North Pole in 1893 and on April 6, 1909, achieved success.

"Admiral Peary, who died in 1920, has left us with a tradition of courage that is worth of com-

STRANGE WILL GOES TO COURT AFTER 51 YEARS

MERCER, Pa. (AP)—It was impossible to build an orphanage for $11,000 in 1910 and it's impossible now.

That's the reason for a most unusual case filed in Mercer County Court this week.

Mrs. Mary L. Budd, who died in 1910, established a trust fund of $40,000. She stipulated that directors of the fund should spend no more than $3,000 for land (30 to 50 acres) and no more than $8,000 for buildings for an orphanage no more than three miles from Sharon.

The directors were instructed to invest the remainder of the $40,000 in first mortgages on county real estate. They invested all of the money because they couldn't build an orphanage for $11,000.

Through the years interest piled up. The fund now totals $221,651. Ministers of Sharon now comprise the present board of directors. What to do with the Budd fund poses this question:

If you couldn't build an orphanage for $11,000 in 1910 how could you do it now?

This week the directors asked the court for help. They filed a petition for the court to issue a "cy press."

This means that the judge of the court may carry out as nearly as possible the intent in the will when the original intent is impossible to fulfill.

According to Atty. Donald McKay, who prepared the unusual petition, Pennsylvania law provides that no charitable trust shall fail for want of a beneficiary.

The ministers comprising the board said in their petition the money in the fund should be rechanneled to the Mercer County Children's Aid Society. The society maintains a children's home in Mercer.

Judge Herman M. Rodgers took the case under advisement and gave no indication when he will hand down a decision.

TARENTUM, Pa. (AP) — Skin divers on Wednesday recovered the bodies of two teen-agers from the Allegheny River at Tarentum.

The youngsters, Ronald Jackson, 13, and Wilson Hill, 14, both of nearby Creighton, Allegheny County, had been missing from their homes since Tuesday afternoon.

The two were supposed to have played in a Pony League baseball game Tuesday evening, but never showed up. Their baseball uniforms were found on a bank near the river.

BENEFITS FOR LEGISLATORS QUITTING IN '61

HARRISBURG (AP) — Legislators who have retired or been defeated since Jan. 1, 1960, would be eligible for the new legislative pension benefits voted this year, under a bill introduced in the House.

The new pension benefits, which became law April 28, originally only applied to current members.

The new bill introduced Wednesday would extend the privilege to an estimated 20 former legislators who served between Jan. 1, 1960, and April 29, 1961. The 20 would include three who have died.

INSPIRED BY VARALLO

The idea for the measure was attributed by its sponsors to former Rep. Mary A. Varallo, who resigned Jan. 4, 1960, to take a seat on Philadelphia's City Council.

The sponsors were her successor as assistant Democratic floor leader, Rep. James J. Dougherty of Philadelphia; Rep. Joshua Ellberg, chairman of the Philadelphia Democratic delegation, and Democratic Reps. Anthony J. Petrosky, Westmoreland, and Nicholas Kornick, Fayette.

The new pension plan provided a 50 per cent increase in benefits for lawmakers. They, in turn, had to increase their contributions to the pension fund by 50 per cent.

The 20 who would become eligible for the 50 per cent increase also would have to make up the higher rate between Jan. 1, 1960, and April 29 of this year.

NEED 10 YEARS

A legislator has to have 10 years of service or have reached the age of 50 to be eligible for state pension.

Most of the beneficiaries would be Republicans who either retired or were defeated in last year's elections. Most of the Democrats who lost their seats last year have been put on other state payrolls and therefore would not yet be eligible for a state pension.

Mrs. Varallo retired on a $1,950 a year state pension, covering 12 years of legislative service. By paying an extra $200 she would be eligible for a pension of $2,925 annually.

DRAW JURY FOR SECOND TRIAL

EBENSBURG, Pa. (AP) — A jury of eight women and four men has been chosen for the Cambria County embezzlement trial of Frank J. Burns, a county commissioner.

The jurors were chosen Wednesday shortly after Burns was cleared of a charge of attempted jury fixing. Visiting Judge John Pentz of Clearfield County dismissed that charge for lack of evidence.

In his embezzlement trial, Burns stands accused of pocketing some $8,000 in county funds while he was superintendent of the county home for the aged.

The trial was scheduled for last March but was postponed following Burns' arrest on the charge of trying to influence prospective jurors for the trial. It was this charge that was dismissed Wednesday.

Meanwhile, a woman arrested with Burns last March on the attempted jury fixing charge went on trial Wednesday. She is Mrs. Loretta Oravecz of Portage R. 1.

Dismisses Burns Jury-Fix Charge

EBENSBURG, Pa. (AP) — A judge threw out of court Wednesday charges of attempted jury-fixing against Cambria County Commissioner Frank J. Burns.

Visiting Judge John J. Pentz of Clearfield County sustained a defense motion that without the testimony of Mrs. Loretta Oravecz of Portage R. 1, the prosecution's chief witness, no direct link could be established between Burns and the jury-fixing charges.

Mrs. Oravecz refused to testify on grounds of self-incrimination Tuesday.

TEACHERS ANNOYED AT STATUS LACK

By G. K. HODENFIELD
AP Education Writer

UNIVERSITY PARK, Pa. (AP) — Teaching is one of the nation's oldest legitimate professions, but by many standards, it is not a profession at all.

This is an irritating and frustrating fact of life to most of the two million Americans actively engaged in education, all the way from kindergarten through college. More than 1,300 of them are gathered here this week to determine what the teaching profession is and what it ought to be.

Teaching, unlike the medical, dental or legal professions, has no authority to manage its own household. It has no power to set standards of performance or to weed out the incompetents. It has little, if anything, to say about how its practitioners shall be educated, trained, and licensed. It lacks even a nationally accepted code of ethics.

STATE BOARDS

The control of public education, for instance, is vested in the state boards of education. Many—perhaps most—of the members of these boards come from outside the field of education.

Board members may act on the recommendations of teachers, they may just listen politely, or they may ignore them completely.

Most of the delegates to the 16th annual convention of the National Commission on Teacher Education and Professional Standards opening today, acknowledge that if educators are going to have more to say about education they must gain truly professional status.

LACK SUCH STATURE

That they haven't yet gained this stature, they acknowledge, is primarily the fault of the profession itself.

"Teaching has all the attributes of a profession, but we have many practitioners who are not professionals," said Charles E. Hamilton, an official of the California Teachers Association.

"We must raise our own standards, and enforce them. We educate young men and women to be classroom teachers, but we don't education them to assume the obligations of the profession."

UNITED PROFESSION

The delegates are agreed, too, that gaining true professional stature depends on a united profession. This is easier to talk about than achieve.

"It's a question of status," said Dr. T. M. Stinnett, executive secretary of the commission. "Many college professors, for instance, are reluctant to admit they belong to the same profession as a kindergarten teacher."

"There is status and there are specialties in other professions too, but a doctor is a member of the medical profession whether he is a general practitioner in a country village or a specialist in a great hospital. An attorney is a member of the legal profession whether he argues only before the Supreme Court or specializes in criminal law."

"We need the same wide view in the teaching profession."

13 Workers Hurt In Furnace Blast

MORRISVILLE, Pa. (AP) — Thirteen steelworkers were burned Tuesday when an open hearth furnace at the U.S. Steel Company's Fairless works exploded.

Joseph A. Holko, 42, of Fairless Hills, was admitted to Lower Bucks County Hospital in Bristol Township with burns. The other 12 men were treated at the plant dispensary and released.

A company spokesman explained that a burner at the bottom of the furnace the men had just rebricked went out and then apparently reignited itself, exploding accumulated gas in the furnace.

ERIE, Pa. (AP) — Ingroo Calagero, 71, of Erie, was killed by a car Wednesday night while crossing a street near his home.

The driver, Harold D. Byerly, 22, also of Erie, was charged with driving while under the influence of liquor. Police said the car dragged Calagero about 90 feet.

SHORT CIRCUIT

MECHANICVILLE, N.Y. (AP) — A carrier pigeon from South Dartmouth, Mass., was killed when it paused to rest on a high tension line. The resulting short-circuit set off the city's fire alarm system.

May Ask Voters To Decide About Death Penalty In Pa.

HARRISBURG (AP)—House attention focussed today on the question whether capital punishment should be abolished in Pennsylvania.

The problem has been a controversial one since Colonial days. It is summed up in a bi-partisan bill that would ban execution as a punishment for a crime.

The bill was in position for possible amendment and debate.

Rep. Stephen McCann, Democratic floor leader, said an amendment that would put the question directly to the voters in a referendum at the Nov. 7 general election.

AWAIT HOUSE ACTION

A similar bill is currently in the Senate Judiciary Committee. Sen. Hugh J. McMenamin, D-Lackawanna, chairman of the committee, said it would remain there pending House action on its proposal.

McCann also indicated a move might be made to have the House bill recommitted to the judiciary special committee for probable demise with the end of the legislature.

The state began keeping records of executions in 1887. Between that year and 1915, when the state abolished hanging and inaugurated the electric chair, there were 279 executions. Since 1915 there have been more than 360 electrocutions.

FEWER EXECUTIONS

The only crime punishable by death is first degree murder. Under present law the jury which convicts a murderer must hold a separate hearing to decide whether it will set the death penalty or life imprisonment.

The number of executions in Pennsylvania has been dwindling in recent years. There have been none since Oct. 26, 1959, when Robert Lee Williams, 22, of Philadelphia, was executed for killing a Philadelphia druggist.

Another major piece of legislation before the House would require the registration of lobbyists. The measure is in position for final passage. However, amendments are expected to be offered, which would delay passage until next week, if approved.

PROPOSES CHANGE

Rep. Maurice Goldstein, R-Allegheny, had prepared a change that would broaden the lobbyist registration requirement to include local governments, as well as the legislature.

As written, the measure requires registered lobbyists to list all expenses or remuneration over $500 that they receive to influence legislation.

The House also was expected to approve Senate-passed legislation linking Pennsylvania with New York, New Jersey, Delaware and the federal government in a 50-year multi-million dollar program for development of the Delaware River Watershed.

EDUCATION MARKS TIME

Meanwhile, the House Public Welfare Committee gave preliminary approval to legislation that would allow Pennsylvania to participate in the federal Kerr-Mills program that would provide medical aid for needy persons over 65.

The legislature marked time on education following a meeting of the Senate-House select committee Tuesday night. At reading Gov. Lawrence made a new plea for action on education and his suggested revenue measures to finance improvements in schooling.

Some of the members of the governor's special education study committee met in Harrisburg to map plans for a statewide campaign to get support for its recommendations. Its proposals are, for the most part, bottled up in House and Senate committees.

Walter Blum led Monmouth Park's riders in victories with 61 in 1960.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Stine, and granddaughter, Machille Wertz, York, spent last week with their cousin, Mrs. Russell Eckard.

Mrs. Eckard returned home with them to spend several weeks.

Michael Wildasin, York St., and Richard White, Fairground Ave., spent the weekend in Ocean City, Md.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Unglesbee, son, Dennis, and daughter, Mary Lou, Wheaton, and Mr. and Mrs. David Stang and son, Tommy, Gettysburg, were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Oliver C. Casbell, R. 2.

Cletus Atkins and grandchildren, Sonny and Diane Atkins, of Charlestown, W. Va., and Mrs. Emma Atkins, Washington, D. C., were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. George Hughes and family, York, are spending several weeks.

Mervyn C. Fuss was guest speaker Tuesday evening to the ULCM at St. Matthew's Church, Pleasant Valley, Md.

The Taneytown Fire Company voted to buy another portable pump at a meeting held recently in the fire hall. The company also approved the sending of marching teams to various parades throughout the summer.

It was announced that five delegates will attend the state convention at Ocean City, Md., June 22-24. The fire chief reported five fire calls during May and 12 ambulance calls were also reported made.

Three applications for membership were received and will be voted upon at the next meeting. Bills totaling $1,966.13 were approved for payment. Receipts were $2,519.42.

MRS. W. R. SCHUBART

Last week some new books to arrive at the library were described, and this week continues the list.

A book with the unfortunately prosaic title, "A Short History of Technology" by Derry and Williams, might be overlooked. Be assured that it is fascinating to peruse even casually, as the authors describe the devices by which man masters his environment. Did you know that skis were used in the Stone Age? They were found accurately portrayed in Scandinavian rock carvings. Full of good sketches, this book will appeal to lay readers.

New for reference is the "Columbia Dictionary of Modern European Literature." Brief sketches of 1,200 European authors are presented, and some general articles on trends of literature in various countries. In "Stories from the Bible," Walter de la Mare retells stories from the first nine books of the Bible. This is a first American edition.

SOME PLEASANT NOVELS

For the teens there are some pleasant novels: "The Island of the Blue Dolphin" by Scott O'Dell, the story of an Indian girl who spent 18 years alone on an island off the coast of California. This one is a Newbery medal winner. "This Was Bridget" by Mary Malone: "Caxton's Challenge" by Cynthia Harnett, historical fiction about an apprentice to a printer in Old England; and "Jed" by Peter Burchard is the story of a Yankee soldier and a southern boy.

Oddly enough, two novels for young readers have appeared with authentic pictures and background material from ancient Egypt. One is "The Egyptian Necklace" by Hans Baumann. Ann Sinclair Mehdevi, who has written for "The New Yorker," has produced her first novel for young people. Treasure and adventure enliven this story which is set on a mythical isle in the Mediterranean.

Little people, and those who read to them, will love "Bedtime for Frances," another story about the appealing furry family (an inexact genus resembling both bears and wood pussies). The story is by Russell Hoban and pictures by Garth Williams who illustrates for E. B. White, Margaret Wise Brown and Laura Ingalls Wilder.

Incidentally the librarian says 13 of those crazy Dr. Seuss books went out of the library in one afternoon. There is a long list of them on the children's shelf, and they are obviously consumed with relish.

Mother Sues For Son; She Must Pay

INDIANA, Pa. (AP)—A Verona woman has been ordered to pay $2,000 to her 14-year-old son for injuries he suffered in an auto crash.

The boy, Ernest Ceccato Jr., was injured in April, 1959, when a car driven by his mother and another auto collided in nearby Center Two.

Mr. and Mrs. Ceccato filed suit in behalf of Ernest against the other driver, Mrs. Shirley Ashbaugh of Salisbury, but Mrs. Ashbaugh's attorney had Mrs. Ceccato named as a second defendant.

When an Indiana County jury returned a verdict in the case on Tuesday, it held Mrs. Ceccato responsible for the crash and awarded $2,000 in damages to her son.

FISHING STORY

CASPER, Wyo. (AP)—Bill Joines forgot his fishing rod when he joined Tom Cooper on a fishing trip on the North Platte River.

He rigged a pole from a length of driftwood and a piece of baling wire.

Joines caught four hasty trout. Cooper, equipped with the latest gear, caught none.

Telephone companies in Japan have a difficult time assigning telephone numbers, because certain numbers mean good luck, wealth, bankruptcy and death.

Auspicious numbers bring a high price. Unlucky ones are passed out to unwary foreigners.

Area Marketing Agent

Summer is officially here and so is a large variety of fresh fruits and vegetables to add color and excitement to the summer-time menu. Locally grown produce is starting to market now. Quality will be high and prices at the year's low in the months ahead, reports Tom Piper, Penn State extension marketing agent.

This is the final big week of the local strawberry harvest. Homemakers desiring to freeze a supply of strawberries for out-of-season use are reminded that supplies will be reduced and quality less desirable after this week. Blueberries from the Carolinas mark the start of the season for this fruit item. Watermelons are in good supply at reasonable prices; cantaloupe prices are moving lower as competition increases from other fruits. Honeydew melons remain in short supply.

Some good quality grapefruit is still available from the Indian River section of Florida. Best orange buy now is the small sized Valencia from California. No change has occurred in the lemon market. Higher prices noted on bananas and pineapples may be the result of the maritime strike although supplies of these commodities are still available. Apricots, Santa Rosa plums, nectarines, Thompson seedless grapes and peaches complete the long list of available fruits; prices are on the high side for these items because they must be shipped over long distances.

BEST VEGETABLE BUYS

Green beans, peas, corn, sweet corn and white potatoes lead the list of good buys in vegetables. Asparagus supplies are adequate and prices continue reasonable. Peppers and California-grown celery bears a lower price tag than recent weeks while onions, cucumbers and salad greens have moved in the opposite direction. The tomato market is very high now and gives promise of staying that way until the beginning of next month; most supplies are now coming from the greenhouses of Ohio.

Good buys at the meat counter will include chuck roasts and blade cuts of beef, turkeys and broiler-fryers although this item will be priced somewhat above the levels of recent weeks. Smoked pork picnics, frankfurters and spring lamb will be economical meat choices too. Crab meat is an especially good buy in sea food.

Eggs, ice cream and a wide variety of cheeses are economically priced in the dairy department.

ABRAHAM WATNER, 70, former owner of the Baltimore Colts of the National Football League, died Monday. He was a director of several corporations, including railroads, real estate companies and insurance firms.

QUEBEC (AP)—Lt. Gen. Sir Richard Turner, 89, Canada's last surviving World War I general, died today. His 3rd Canadian Infantry Brigade won fame by standing firm against Germans' first poison gas attack at Ypres.

In the 1939 National Open, Sam Snead needed a par five on the final hole to win the tournament. He shot an eight and a closing round 74.

Order 30,000 Dogs On Leash July 22

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — The 30,000 dogs in this city are supposed to go on leash July 22, or else—

But no one is sure just what else.

The police claim they shouldn't have to chase dogs, that it's a job for the Society for Prevention of Cruelty to Animals.

The SPCA agrees, but its professional catchers want to know if the Board of Supervisors meant what it said in the new ordinance. In other words, are all unleashed dogs to be impounded?

If so, the SPCA wants a "dog task force." And that will cost money.

Anyway, Mayor George Christopher has said he'll sign the ordinance.

SAY FRICK MAY RESIGN JOB AS BASEBALL HEAD

By TED SMITS
Associated Press Sports Editor
NEW YORK (AP) — There is talk in baseball circles today that Commissioner Ford Frick may resign his $65,000 job at the head of baseball before the end of his second term Sept. 20, 1965.

Says Frick: "I have no immediate plans to retire but I do not propose to work until I drop in my tracks. If I remain to the end of my contract it would carry me beyond the age that I think a man should work. But as of now I've got lots of pep."

Most frequently discussed as possible successors are former vice president Richard M. Nixon; Judge Robert C. Cannon of Milwaukee; Joe Cronin, president of the American League; and Warren Giles, president of the National League.

CURRENT HEADACHE

Baseball men think Frick will not want to step aside until baseball's current headaches are further along to solution. These are:

1. Expansion of the majors. The American League went to 10 teams this year, the National goes to 10 next year.
2. The wild bidding for untied young players through the bonus system, with offers to teenagers of $100,000 and more.
3. Legislation to protect the reserve clause and remove the threat of antitrust action.

Frick was born Dec. 19, 1894, and thus would be close to 71 if he remained to the end of his second seven-year term. He is reputed to be eligible any time for a pension of $30,000 or more.

FIRST HIT WINS DODGERS GAME

CHICAGO (AP) — A game-winning three-run double was the first major league hit for Gordon Ray Winthorn, who happened to enter organized baseball because he went to a tryout camp to keep a pal company.

Winthorn's bases-loaded double in the fourth inning drove in the first three runs of Los Angeles' 4-1 victory in the first game of a double-header with the Chicago Cubs. The Dodgers won the second game 4-2.

Winthorn also doubled in the seventh inning of the opening game. He did not appear in the second game.

The 27-year-old Winthorn is a native of Watseka, Ill., and now resides in Danville, Va. Before becoming a professional baseball player, he was a track star at North Phoenix (Ariz.) High School. He was Arizona's state sprinting champion in three different events.

His entry into professional baseball was unusual. He went to a New York Giants' tryout camp in 1952 just to keep a friend company. He was talked into participating in the tryout and was signed promptly by Giants scout Dutch Ruether.

Social Security

Q. My employer is taking the social security tax out of my pay. But he made a "kidding" remark recently, implying he isn't turning these taxes in. I'm afraid he's kidding in earnest. How can I check up?

A. Phone or write your social security district office and ask for a post card request form. Fill it out and mail it. A statement of your account will be sent to you promptly. It will show the total amount of earnings listed for you in the social security records. Earnings during the last calendar year, however, may not be shown because it takes time to get all the reports on record. If you find your employer was kidding in earnest, notify the social security district office. Always remember, benefits to you and your family are based on the record of your earnings. It's important to keep this record accurate.

Q. Can anyone (say a snooping neighbor, for example) get a statement of my social security account?

A. No. The law says these records are confidential. Only you can find out what your account shows. You — and the social security district office that processes your claim for the retirement, disability and survivors' benefits.
Q. My brother-in-law tells me he asked for and got a statement recently showing the total amount of earnings listed for him in the social security records. Was this a special form or can anyone get the same service?

A. The Social Security Administration will gladly send you a statement of your social security record, if you ask for it. Contact the social security district office at Room 201, Chambersburg Trust Co. Bldg., Chambersburg, Pa.

LAW CHANGES DRUG STATUS FOR HEROIN

HARRISBURG (AP)—Any preparation containing heroin, even in small amounts, is to be classified as a drug in Pennsylvania.

Gov. Lawrence Wednesday signed into law a bill requiring that classification for such preparations. At present, preparations with only small amounts of heroin need not be classified as drugs.

Lawrence signed into law other new bills that:

Create a new state and local welfare commission charged to prepare legislation for codification of the welfare laws and submit its report by March 1, 1963. The commission must form a plan for the division of public welfare responsibilities and functions between state and local agencies.

HEALTH RULES

Give county commissioners or county health commissions 30 days to approve or disapprove board of health rules and regulations. The present deadline is 10 days.

Allow sale of $1 million in World War II veterans bonus bonds to finance residual claims for the bonus.

Allow motorists to use their new operators' licenses any time after the 15th of the month preceding the license period.

Require motorists to dim their headlights within 300 feet when following or overtaking another car.

MRS. F. E. COULSON

YORK SPRINGS — The third meeting of the York Springs Agriculture Club was held in the York Springs elementary auditorium recently with President Rita Hopper in charge. Members plan to visit each member's home to see their project for the next meeting. After the tour there will be a wiener roast at the home of Mrs. Paul Middour. Dwight Fadenrecht gave a demonstration on "How to Plant Potatoes" and Martha Hikes and Diana Bricker gave a demonstration on "What's Their Life."

Mrs. Fred Wiest has returned home after visiting her son, Marvin Wiest and family, Detroit, Mich. The family had visited his parents and Mrs. Wiest returned to Detroit with them. Enroute to Michigan they visited in Geneva and Niagara Falls, N. Y.

Visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Martin were Miss Ruth Croft, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Mellett and daughter, Brenda, of Marks; Mr. Bricker, of Mercersburg, and Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Whitcomb.

Mrs. Jack Hershey returned home from the Polyclinic Hospital, Harrisburg, Sunday where she had been a surgical patient for the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Nell have returned home from Knisley, Kan. The Latimore WCTU will meet at the home of Mrs. Chester Worley Monday evening at 8 o'clock.

Miss Gertrude Neitz returned to her home in Philadelphia Tuesday after spending the past week with Mr. and Mrs. William Stewart.

ADLAI VIEWS GLOOMY ON SA

By MAX HARRELSON

BOGOTA, Colombia (AP)—Adlai Stevenson returns to Washington today with gloomy views on art.

Paul Lehman is building a house on land adjoining his present residence.

Mrs. Latham Brown and children, Cathy, Colleen, Latham Jr., Indianapolis, Ind., are visiting with the former's mother, Mrs. Jerry Guise. Capt. Brown is spending the week in Washington, D. C., and will join the family Friday.

South America but with the feeling most of the continent's governments are under good leadership and are working toward improvement.

Informed quarters said those would be the main findings he would lay before President Kennedy Friday in summing up his 18-day trip.

As his military plane completed the final leg of the 16,500-mile trip which began June 4, Stevenson declined to comment on his tour. But informed sources said he would report that conditions are worse than when he made a similar tour a year ago.

He was said to have reached the conclusion that economic conditions have deteriorated during the past year, Communist subversion has increased and that South American governments are less stable.

He was understood to have found the governments conscious of a Communist menace but the current political climate unsuitable for joint action to curb subversive activities.

FATAL ACCIDENT

LANCASTER, Pa. (AP) — One man was killed and four Amish carpenters and six members of a family injured Wednesday when a station wagon and a car collided at an intersection near here.

Israel B. Lefever, 67, of Lancaster who was driving the Amishmen from job to job, died almost instantly. The Amish are members of a Protestant sect which does not allow its members to own or drive cars.

REPORT SHOWS TEACHER PAY RISES 18 PCT.

HARRISBURG — The average yearly salary of Pennsylvania teachers and administrators has increased by 18 per cent in the past five years, according to a report of the Department's Bureau of Research.

In 1956 the average for professional employees was $4,649. Today it is $5,507.

The report also disclosed that only seven of the state's 69,974 classroom teachers earn more than $9,100. On the other hand, 4,143 earn less than $4,100 a year. The legal minimum salary for teachers is $3,600.

HIGHEST PAID

Highest paid professional educators are the superintendents with an average of $12,112. Fifty-two of the 277 chief administrators earn $15,000 or more, and five get over $20,000. Of 193 professionals classified as administrative assistants, 27 have a yearly salary of $10,300 or over, against an average of $8,782.

Average salaries for other classification are: elementary principal, $7,597; high school principal, $8,253; psychologist, $7,876; guidance counselor, $6,296, and librarian, $5,561.

"The educational preparation and Pennsylvania's school staff has shown considerable improvement since 1956-1957," the report states. "This year 78.8 per cent of the professional personnel has at least a bachelor's degree, whereas only 72.8 per cent held at least such a degree in 1956-1957."

NON-TEACHERS' PAY

The truth of the old adage that the best way to make money in education is to stay out of the classroom seems to be proved by the report. The average salary of the nonteaching administrator is $7,454, while the top average classroom salary—for industrial arts teachers—is $5,737. Next highest group is surprisingly, Latin teachers with $5,659, followed by science teachers with an average of $5,637.

The average classroom teacher's salary (excluding administration) is $5,309. Compared with the average salaries of nine other states of comparable size and population, Pennsylvania ranks next to last. Only Texas pays less, with an average of $4,530. California's average is $6,765, Illinois $5,900, Indiana $5,670, Massachusetts $5,500, Michigan $5,950, New Jersey $5,982, New York $6,225, and Ohio $5,423.

DEATHS

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

PROVIDENCE, R.I. (AP)—Lester H. Woolsey, 83, international lawyer and former law partner of Robert Lansing, secretary of state in the Wilson administration, died Tuesday. He was an attorney for Siam, China and Chile and represented American citizens in their claims against foreign governments.

SPOKANE, Wash. (AP)—Frances M. Walker, wife of retired Maj. Gen. Fred L. Walker, died Tuesday. Gen. Walker was commander of the 36th Division during the Salerno invasion and the Italian campaign.

TRAILER BILL GETS SUPPORT OF TRUCKERS

HARRISBURG (AP) — Support for legislation to extend the permissible length of truck trailers on state highways is mounting, but Gov. Lawrence still declines public comment on legislation.

"The governor said it is his policy to let the legislature handle its own legislation," said H. B. Bartlett of Reading, chairman of the group that met with Lawrence Wednesday to discuss trailer legislation.

Bartlett said, "We tried to impress the governor with the fact that not having 40-foot trailers puts Pennsylvania out of step with other states in the union."

Pennsylvania's present limit on truck trailers is 35 feet, with an over-all truck and trailer limit of 50 feet.

Trucking interests, manufacturers and the Chamber of Commerce want the trailer limit raised to 40 feet, but they are not asking that the over-all 50-foot limit be changed.

The proposal is incorporated in legislation before the Senate Highways Committee.

HAZLETON SUPPORT

Earlier this week an officer of Hazleton Manufacturing firm and a committee of the Greater Philadelphia Chamber of Commerce expressed their support for the trailer bill.

State Highways Secretary Park H. Martin said his department opposes the 40-foot trailer as a matter of safety. Bartlett said Wednesday state laws already permit 40-foot cattle and auto trailers, as well as 40-foot buses.

Some backers of the bill also said at a meeting here several weeks ago that James P. Clark, Philadelphia trucker and Democratic finance chairman, is against it. Another report indicated the Teamsters Union is opposed to the bill.

The Teamsters were no represented at Wednesday's meeting with Lawrence, but James Cerulli of Hazleton, representing the United Auto Workers and the United who was a member of three Stanley Cup teams, died Tuesday. He had been associated with the Minneapolis Arena for 20 years.

PITTSBURGH, (AP) — Albert A. Grayber, a Pittsburgh detective and former middleweight boxer who fought a six-round draw with Harry Greb in 1916, died Tuesday.

HOLLYWOOD, Calif. (AP) — Ruloff E. Cutten, 65, senior partner in the New York brokerage firm of E. F. Hutton & Co., died Tuesday. Cutten, who was born in San Francisco, resided in New York City.

Poultry Queen

Miss Mary Jane Bowman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Bowman, McSherrystown, who on Saturday was selected as Adams County poultry queen by the Adams County Poultry Association at the South Mountain Fairgrounds. She received a $25 gift certificate and will be entered in the state poultry queen contest later in the summer.

MRS. KENNETH SANDERS
Phone 57-R

FAIRFIELD — Miss Barbara Sanders, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David Sanders, a student at Bryn Mawr Hospital School of Nursing, has been elected secretary of the student government for the coming year. She will also serve as literary editor of the yearbook during her senior year at the school.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold J. Miller, McGinley Dr., have returned from a visit with Mr. and Mrs. Harold D. Miller, of Cumberland, Md. They brought with them Donald Lee, of Cumberland, while their son, Randall, stayed to visit with his grandparents.

Mr. and Mrs. Rodney Warren will sail for Frankfurt, Germany, July 17 where they will reside for two years. Mrs. Warren is the former Nancy Sanders.

John Snively, son of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Snively, has enlisted in the U. S. Air Force and is stationed at the Lakeland Air Force Base, Texas. Dean Snively, a student at Florida Southern College, is spending the summer with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Snively.

Steelworkers, said, "we (the two unions) strongly advocate passage of this bill."

Cerulli declined to say if he knows about the Teamsters' opposition. "They aren't part of the AFL-CIO," he said. "The Teamsters can speak for themselves."

PLAN FISHING CONTEST FOR BOY SCOUTS

The annual fishing contest for the Cubs of Pack 84 will take place on Saturday. Cubmaster Alvah L. Stonesifer Jr. announces that the group will gather at 10 a.m. in the rear of the community center, E. King St., and then hike to a pond near town. Den fathers and den chiefs are invited to accompany the group. Each Cub is asked to take a box lunch, drinking water, tackle and bait. The group will return to town about 4 p.m. Prizes will be given for the first fish caught, the most fish and the biggest fish caught.

Miss Mary A. Gemmill, Mechanicsburg, school teacher, was the guest speaker at the weekly dinner meeting of the Littlestown Rotary Club Tuesday evening at Schottie's Hotel. Miss Gemmill studied for a year in New Zealand on a Rotary fellowship. She told of her experiences in that country and her return trip to the States, which took her around the world. The classification and membership committee, Charles E. Ritter, chairman, was in charge. Visiting Rotarians introduced were the Rev. Dr. Nevin E. Smith and Charles Bright, both of Hanover. Leonard L. Potter II was a guest of his father, Dr. Leonard L. Potter.

The newly-elected officers of the Rotary Club will be installed at the meeting next Tuesday at 6:15 p.m. at Schottie's. The club service committee, composed of Clyde W. Crouse, chairman, Howard A. Daum, Clarence J. Krichen Jr., Charles E. Ritter, Paul R. Snyder and John D. Thrush, will be in charge of the program.

TO GIVE RECITAL

Mrs. George A. Stonesifer will present an organ recital at the 51st anniversary observance of the Hoffman Home for Children on Children on Saturday from 12 o'clock noon to 1 p.m. in the chapel at the home, near town. Mrs. Stonesifer is organist at Redeemer's United Church of Christ.

The weekly public party will be held by the Ladies' Auxiliary of the Fraternal Order of Eagles, Littlestown Aerie No. 2226 on Friday at 8 p.m. in the social room of the FOE Home, W. King St.

The Senior Choir of St. Paul's Lutheran Church will not rehearse this evening as previously announced. The choir will not rehearse over the summer months, until September 7.

Leon Clyde Dietrich, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Dietrich, near town, was baptized during the Sunday morning worship service in St. James' United Church of Christ, along the Harney Rd., by the pastor, the Rev. John C. Chatlos. The parents were the baptismal sponsors. The child was born May 11, 1961, in the Warner Hospital, Gettysburg.

COMMUNION SERVICE

Holy Communion services will be held in St. John's Lutheran Church Friday evening at 8 o'clock, and on Sunday at 8 and 10:15 a.m. A white elephant party will be featured at the June meeting of the Ladies' Aid Society of St. John's Church next Thursday, June 29, at 8 p.m. at the home of Mrs. James Duttera, Littlestown R. 1. Each person is asked to bring an item for the party.

The Youth Fellowship of St. James' Church, along the Harney Rd., will sponsor a strawberry and ice cream festival on the church grounds, starting at 4 p.m., Saturday.

Mrs. Charles E. Ritter, Glenwyn Drive, will be hostess to the Abigail Kammerer Circle of the United Lutheran Church Women of St. Paul's Church for the monthly meeting next Tuesday at 8 p.m. Mrs. Ritter will also be program leader.

Prizes will be awarded and refreshments will be available at the weekly public party in St. Aloysius Hall, starting at 8 p.m. on Saturday.

Cool, Wet Weather Predicted For East

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Cool temperatures and widespread showers prevailed over most of the eastern half of the nation today, with fair skies elsewhere.

Rains spread from the Carolinas northward through New England. In a six-hour span both Scranton, Pa., and Elizabeth City, N.C., reported 127 inches.

Showers and thundershowers also fell on Iowa, Minnesota, northern Illinois, Wisconsin, in northeast Kansas and upper Michigan with the heaviest fall of about one-third of an inch in Wisconsin. Some fog and low clouds lingered along the Southern California coast.

GBPA Rallies Support From Many Groups In This Nation And Abroad

The Gettysburg Battlefield Preservation Association, which recently hung its Thomas Jefferson Community Program citation from the Freedoms Foundation at Valley Forge, continues to receive constant, if unspectacular, support from many areas throughout the nation.

A Pittsburgh woman, who wishes to remain anonymous, has forwarded a check for $5,000. In the last few months more than $700 has been collected from young scholars who held benefit pageants, dances, sales and similar activities.

The Allegheny Foundation, chaired by Richard M. Scaife of Pittsburgh, contributed $500, and converted pounds of sterling keep trickling in from the United Kingdom enthusiasts.

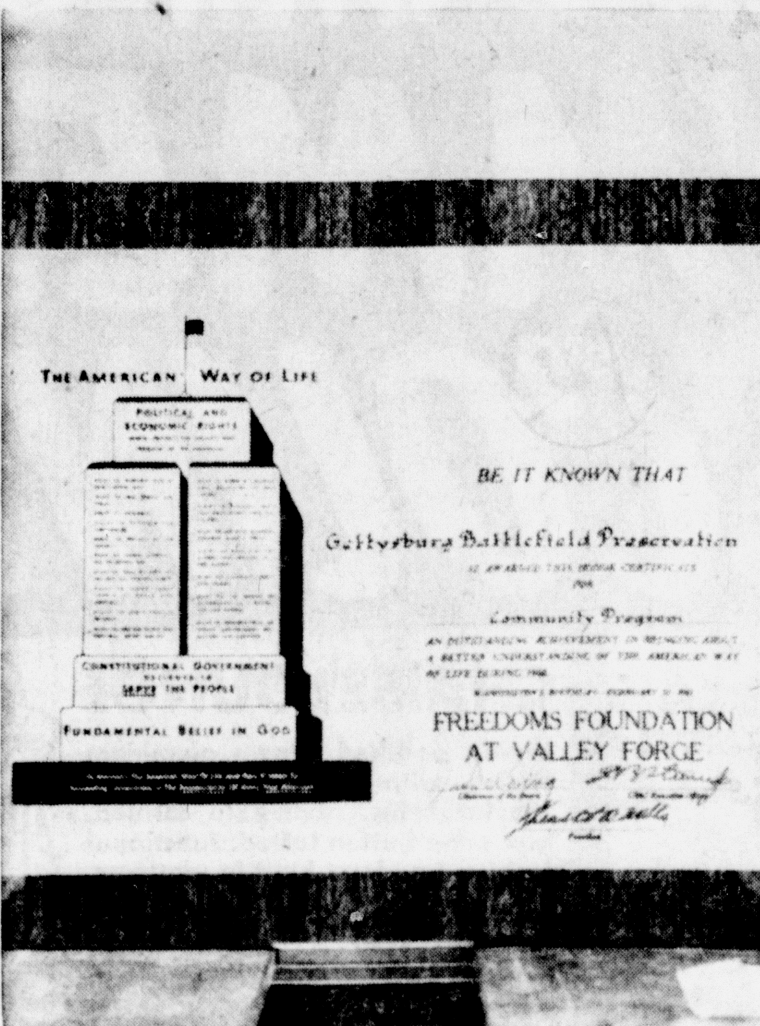

Not the least surprising development is the $1,600 raised by the antique milk wagon on display at the National Museum during the past three months.

PARADE MAGAZINE
While total figures of the money received from Parade magazine, a staunch advocate of the GBPA's campaign, are incomplete, the organization has received approximately $50,000 from this source with more expected in connection with the Civil War Vacation Guide.

The guide, a directory of Civil War landmarks, national parks, historical sites, buildings and monuments on sale for a quarter carries with it free admission coupons worth $7.25 to a specified list of Civil War attractions. Included are a 35-cent admission to Cliff Arquette's Soldier's Museum and a $6 Gray Line bus tour of Washington and Arlington National Cemetery.

The local GBPA office reports that Thomas Leo, Delaware state chairman of the organization, leads the nation in the sale of deeds.

Ohio chairman, Judge Robert M. Draper, of Columbus, has promised strong support at the Ohio State Fair in the fall where deeds will be sold and a tent display erected with items on Gettysburg. Mock battles will also be held daily between the 2nd Ohio

Volunteer Infantry and the 2nd Kentucky Cavalry for GBPA benefit.

SCHOOL BILL FACES UPHILL HOUSE BATTLE

By JOHN BECKLER

WASHINGTON (AP) — Administration forces begin an uphill struggle today to rescue President Kennedy's school bill from the sea of controversy that has all but swamped it in the House.

Democratic leaders in the House looked to the President to do some personal pushing on the $2.5-billion measure.

Kennedy and House Speaker Sam Rayburn were dealt a setback Tuesday when the Rules Committee refused to send the bill to the floor as Rayburn wanted.

Instead it voted 9 to 6 to delay any action until the House Education Committee sends along another bill—the National Defense Education Act — with loans for parochial schools included.

STRONG OPPOSITION

The success of the Rules Committee in blocking action illustrated, in capsule form, the potent forces allied against the administration bill. The measure calls for a three-year program of grants to the states for either public school construction or teachers' salaries, as the states desire.

The nine-man majority was composed of five Republicans, two Southern Democrats and two Northern Democrats—both Roman Catholics representing heavily Catholic districts.

Republicans in the House are nearly unanimously opposed to any school bill. The opposition of the conservative Southern Democrats is heightened by their concern that a federal education program would hasten integration in public schools. Many Catholic congressmen are under pressure from their constituents to withhold support from public school aid until they are assured parochial schools also will get some form of aid.

In addition, the bill faces heavy attack once it gets to the floor from members who oppose the provisions for teachers' salaries but favor the construction program, and those who object to the formula under which poorer states will receive a greater proportion of funds than richer states.

KILLED IN FALL

SCRANTON, Pa. (AP) — Mrs. Mary Rosetti, 56, was resting on a couch when she heard the telephone ring. She rushed to answer, slipped on a throw rug on a newly-polished floor and hit her head against a door jamb. She died instantly of head injuries, ruled coroner Paul E. Kubasko.

Murder Witness Gets Mental Test

ATLANTIC CITY, N.J. (AP) — Robert Russell, the man who claims to have witnessed the murder of Vincent J. Blaney, is going to have a mental examination.

Russell's attorney, Samuel Epstein, said he wanted the examination made to determine "if he (Russell) is in a position to intelligently discuss the charges against him."

Atlantic County Judge Paul M. Salsburg Tuesday granted Epstein's request that the county pay for an examination.

The judge set bail for Russell at $10,000. Russell has been charged on 38 counts, most of them for breaking and entering and larceny. He also is under indictment for escaping from jail.

IN ARMS OF THE LAW

LAKE GEORGE, N.Y. (AP) — Law-enforcement agents were right on the spot for this automobile accident.

The car smashed into a building housing the Warren County sheriff's office. The vehicle was driven by Sgt. Robert Blais of the Lake George police department.

OSARK MORMON HAS SERVICES IN HUGE CAVE

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP)—Hold church services in a cave?

"Why not?" asks the Rev. Lyman Riley, who believes he is the only member of the clergy in the world to operate a cavern.

An ordained minister of the reorganized Church of Latter-Day Saints, he owns and manages the famous Onondaga Cave at Leasburg, Mo., in the Ozark Hills, which has been described as one of the 10 most beautiful caves in America.

BOONE DISCOVERY

"It was originally discovered by Daniel Boone and in size of rooms—one room is nearly half a mile in length—it is second only to Carlsbad Cavern in New Mexico," he said.

While the cave is primarily a tourist attraction, the minister-owner, as well as the clergymen of other faiths, periodically holds candlelit services there on Sundays and religious holidays, such as Easter, using a natural rock formation as a pulpit.

These devotional meetings are well attended, attract worshippers from hundreds of miles away.

ROMAN TIMES

"It reminds many of the occasions in Roman times when Christians held their services in grottoes to avoid torture," said the Rev. Mr. Riley. "The candlelight lends a reverential atmosphere."

Before combining theology and speleology, the study of caves, the colorful pastor, who is 43, had a brief career as a schoolteacher. He is still active as a youth leader in the Ozark area.

After losing a teaching job, he hitch-hiked around the country for a while. Then, following a hitch in the Navy as radio technician aboard a destroyer in the South Pacific, he became first a guide and then manager at the Meramec Caverns at Stanton, Mo.

BIT OF A ROUNDER
According to his own testimony, in those days he was a bit of a rounder.

"I got into the habit of using alcohol as a crutch," he recalled. "I became a minister—I was ordained in 1954—primarily because of a need within myself. I realized I wasn't the man I wanted to be. "I decided the only way a man can become immortal on this earth is to live in the minds of other people—but the only way to do that is to serve them."

Busy in half a dozen community philanthropies, he is proudest of the fact that of the 23 couples he has married none has divorced or separated.

Odds-on favorites Carry Back and Tompon have failed in the last two runnings of the Belmont Stakes. Other odds-on choices to lose in recent years were Tim Tam and Bold Ruler.

THIRD VICTIM OF FIRE DIES

JOHNSTOWN, Pa. (AP)—Fire that destroyed a two-story frame house near Barnesboro has claimed a third life.

Barbara Zarnesky, 14, died in Miners' Hospital at Spangler late Tuesday afternoon.

Her sister, Martha, 20, burned to death in her bedroom as flames swept through the home early Tuesday.

The girls' grandmother, Mrs. Angeline Wojnar, 75, died in Miners' Hospital shortly after the blaze.

Both Barbara Zarnesky and Mrs. Wojnar leaped to the ground from the upper portion of the house. Their deaths were attributed to burns.

Four other members of the Zarnesky family were injured in jumping from a porch roof, but none was seriously hurt.

Firemen said the blaze broke out on the first floor and filled the stairway to the second floor with flames while the family was asleep.

Marlow Studies Pressure Of Crisis Over Berlin

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst
WASHINGTON (AP) — This is an ABC on how East and West got tangled in the Berlin net which may drag the world into crisis before 1961 ends.

The central question: Will Russia try to grab off Berlin by shutting down the routes over which the West sends supplies and people to the city?

The United States, Britain and Russia—during and immediately after world war II—agreed: DIVIDED GERMANY

1. To divide Germany into four zones — France was included—with each of the Big Four occupying one zone.

The Russian zone naturally was in the East since it was nearest Russia. And Berlin, since it is in Eastern Germany, was in the Russian zone.

2. To treat Berlin as a special area, with each of the Big Four allowed to have troops there.

MILITARY POWER

The city was to be run by the four powers' military commanders. Each was to serve in rotation as chief commander.

All Western people and supplies bound for Berlin—since it was in the Russian zone, now known as Communist East Germany—had to move through that zone.

In light of what follows these two questions are pertinent: AGREEMENT WITH RUSS

Was there any agreement with the Russians on specific access routes to Berlin? Did the Russians agree to keep them open?

In 1945 former Soviet Premier Stalin agreed with former President Harry Truman that the allies would have free access. And the State Department in 1958 said specific routes were agreed to.

Things went fine but not for long. Real trouble began in 1946 when Communists were overwhelmingly defeated in Berlin's first free elections in 14 years.

VETOS START

The Russian commandant in Berlin vetoed the election of a pro-Western mayor. More vetoes followed.

In 1947 the Big Four sat down to work out a German peace treaty. The result: zero.

So the United States, Britain, France and some other West European countries called for setting up a West German federation.

SOVIETS QUIT

Truman ordered an airlift to supply the city. This, after almost a year, broke the blockade.

That same year, 1949, the new states of West Germany and Communist East Germany were founded, with the Soviets agreeing the Western allies would have at least the same access routes to Berlin as before the blockade.

DIVIDED CITY

By this time Western Berlin, of course, was thoroughly pro-West. The Russian sector of the city, East Berlin, was under the Soviet thumb.

By 1955 Russia and West Germany had established official relations for doing business.

But the West Germans and the Western allies refused to recognize the East German Communist government as legitimate because it was not based on free elections. They still keep that position to this day.

CONTROLS ACCESS

Yet, while Russia said Communist East Germany was fully sovereign, it kept in its own hands control of those access routes from the West to West Berlin.

It was a good way to avoid trouble. No one could predict what would happen if, for instance, the Russians gave the East Germans control of those routes and the allies refused to deal with them because they were not considered legitimate.

Meanwhile, West Berlin had become a bleeding sore to the Communists. Right in the heart of the Communist world it was a Western showcase of prosperity.

HANDY REFUGE

It was also a handy refuge for East Germans fleeing from communism. The Russians said it was a spy center for the West.

Finally, Premier Khrushchev threatened to turn control of the supply routes to the East Germans in 1958. He built this threat toward a crisis.

In 1959 President Dwight D. Eisenhower met with him and cooled him down. But Khrushchev still insisted, although more quietly, there had to be a settlement.

AGAIN THREATENS

Now once again he makes the threat which has dangerous implications for these reasons:

The West, because of the agreements mentioned here, claims it doesn't need permission to keep troops in Berlin and move supplies and people into the city. The West argues the Soviets have no right to interfere.

Khrushchev says those Western rights are outdated by history. Turning control of the access routes over to the East Germans wouldn't mean anything by itself.

The East Germans couldn't by themselves attempt to keep the allies from Berlin—the West could run over them—and therefore would need Soviet support. Soviet support against a Western smash-through would mean war.

Khrushchev talks about having a conference to settle the whole thing. But he wants it settled before the end of 1961.

COMEDIANS BLAME TV FOR FAILURE

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP TV-Radio Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — Abe Burrows, a theatrical jack-of-all-trades whose specialty is comedy, recently delivered a rather profound statement: "I think humor is what makes you laugh, no matter what the situation is."

It seems pretty apparent that the trouble with television humor—and the discontented manufacturers of comedy—is that much of it isn't getting laughs. When a comedian is funny, he stays on the air. When he isn't, he doesn't, but most of the retired funny men have a tendency to blame the medium rather than their own shortage of comic material for their departure.

CURIOUS SILENCE

The most recent noisy defector from the ranks of TV comedians is Mort Sahl who has decided that the medium just isn't right for his type of humor and that the Ed Sullivan Show, his primary showcase over the past couple of seasons, just doesn't give him enough time to work his magic on the audience.

Well, I've watched Sahl a number of times on the Sullivan Show, and one of the interesting things about his performance has been the curious silence which fell over the studio audience while he was on. Last time, a few weeks ago, the lack of response was downright embarrassing, and even Sahl seemed disconcerted. He was dropping in bitter little asides about "pockets of resistance" as his topical sallies fell with dull thuds.

ARLENE TAKES LEAVE

Jack Benny goes on with his comedy show year after year, and you don't hear him assailing TV. Red Skelton will be back again and makes no secret of his affection for TV. Steve Allen, who will be back next season, never tees off on television when the going got sticky for him.

Actress and model Suzy Parker will take Arlene Francis' place on the "What's My Line?" panel next Sunday, and there will be a succession of women guest panelists filling in during Arlene's summer-long leave of absence from the show.

LARGE POLICE CLASS

HARRISBURG (AP) — Secretary of Internal Affairs Genevieve Blatt is scheduled to address the largest class of municipal police officers ever to graduate from the State Police Academy at Hershey on June 30. The class consists of 85 members of borough, township and city police departments.

ORDERS PROBE ON SHIPMENT OF MOLASSES

WASHINGTON (AP) — Apparently irked, President Kennedy has ordered his staff to investigate a big shipment of blackstrap molasses sent from Cuba to New Orleans.

The molasses, 2,018,424 gallons, arrived from Cuba last Friday aboard a Norwegian tanker. It was unloaded Tuesday at the Publicker Chemical Corp. docks at Westwego, across the Mississippi River from New Orleans.

Assistant news secretary Andrew T. Hatcher implied that Kennedy was unhappy about the shipment. He recalled that Kennedy said at a news conference in February that he hoped the deal would not be completed.

PUBLICKER SPOKESMAN

A spokesman for Publicker, which processes industrial alcohol from molasses at its New Orleans plant, said the Cuban molasses was destined for shipment outside New Orleans and said further comment would have to come from the parent company, Publicker Industries in Philadelphia. Officials there declined to comment.

The corporation and its subsidiaries produce cattle feed in addition to alcohol.

Man Kills Sister

In Sink Argument

PITTSBURGH (AP) — A woman was stabbed to death by her brother in the city's Hill's District Tuesday night in an argument over a leaky sink, police report.

Officers said Helen Lewis, 38, died from butcher knife wounds. Hubert A. Lewis, 56, who lived with his sister, was picked up by police a short time later and charged with murder.

Compulsory Reorganization Of School Districts Given Top Priority By Joint Committee

HARRISBURG (AP)—Compulsory reorganization of school districts was given top priority Tuesday night by the special education committees of the House and Senate.

But the committees, in a closed, joint meeting lasting almost four hours, postponed a decision on a tax to finance any education programs adopted by the current legislature.

The general tone of the joint meeting—which had been expected to set a definitive course of action on education in the waning weeks of the session—was cautious optimism that a satisfactory program can be adopted.

CONTROVERSIAL ISSUE

Compulsory reorganization is one of the most controversial issues involved in the various recommendations from Gov. Lawrence's Committee on Education. This latter group, a mixture of laymen and legislators, studied the whole public education complex from kindergarten through college for a year and came up with a long list of proposals.

These proposals are to form the basis for any education program enacted by the 1961 legislature. The joint meeting assigned the tough question of subsidies—financial help—second priority for legislative action.

MONEY NOT AN ISSUE

Reorganization does not involve any appreciable expenditure of money.

After reorganization and subsidies, the joint meeting agreed that the various proposals on higher education—junior colleges, scholarships and student loans, and aid to universities—should get next priority.

Beyond reorganization, however, none of the other items were discussed in detail.

MEET NEXT WEEK

The committees agreed to meet again next Monday morning and again Tuesday night.

The respective chairmen, Sen. Jo Hays, D-Centre, and Rep. Jeanette F. Reibman, D-Northampton, held an impromptu news conference following Tuesday night's meeting to discuss the action. Rep. K. Leroy Irvis, D-Allegheny, who served as secretary of the joint meeting, also sat in. None of the six Republicans who attended remained.

It was learned later that there had been pretty solid agreement on the principle of compulsory reorganization but that the vote on various items within that outline produced a close division that crossed party lines.

KEY DECISION

A key decision was to adopt 5,000 students as a minimum sized school district.

This was in line with the proposal of the governor's committee.

The meeting also decided that a lay commission should handle the job of seeing that reorganization is carried out. This also was in line with the governor's committee proposal.

Further, the 13 members (one Republican, Sen. Raymond P. Shafer, Crawford, was absent) agreed that the 2,244 school districts should have four years in which to reorganize into larger units voluntarily. The lay commission would enforce it after that.

DIFFERENT OPINION

Mrs. Reibman, along with the Pennsylvania State Education Association, had recommended that districts be smaller than 5,000—about 3,000 students—and that the State Council of Education and the Department of Public Instruction handle the task of drawing up the districts.

The chairmen could not say when the reorganization bill now before Hays' Senate committee would move for consideration by first the Senate and then the House. Hays explained that there were some changes in detail to work out. It may be next week, he added.

1 WEEKS NOT ENOUGH

Mrs. Reibman, at the same time declined to say whether she may push her own package of bills for the smaller school units.

They have been introduced in the House and are before her committee.

Both chairmen agreed, however, that there seemed little chance of completing action on the education proposals in the three weeks the legislative leaders tentatively have set as a deadline for finishing the work of the 1961 session. As for taxes, it appeared that the committees want to determine first what education program they feel the legislature should adopt and how much it will cost.

The price tag on the complete program recommended by the governor's committee has been placed at $26.8 million.

MORTGAGE TO BE DESTROYED

Lt. Charles Garci, Pennsylvania state fire marshal's office, will be guest speaker at mortgage burning ceremonies of McSherrystown Fire Company, according to final plans for the activities announced at a company meeting.

The ceremonies will be held in the form of a buffet luncheon Thursday at 7:30 p.m. and a public open house will be held Sunday from 2 to 4 p.m.

The company's engine house at Main and Third Sts. was erected at a cost of $65,000 and dedicated in July, 1953.

Bernard Smith, president, said the ceiling of the main hall and apparatus room is being covered with acoustic tile and will be completed in time for the mortgage burning ceremonies.

Eugene Murren, Jean B. Noel and Bernard C. Brady were named delegates to attend the Adams County Volunteer Firemen's Association meeting at the Greenmount Fire Company hall Monday at 8 p.m.

Norman Wildasin was elected an active company member and Richard Adams was enrolled as a social member.

House Is Expected To Ease Bid Rules

HARRISBURG (AP)—The House is expected to take early action on a bill that would give special consideration to firms in distressed areas on contracts let by the State Property and Supplies Department.

The Senate Tuesday passed 29-10 the measure which would allow the department to accept bids from such firms if they were less than 5 per cent under the next lowest offer.

Also passed and sent to the House was a bill to have the Commonwealth bear the cost of damages resulting from widening highways or changing grades in Scranton and 47 third class cities.

Negroes File Suit On Polling Place

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Five Negroes have filed what a Georgia state official says is probably the first federal court suit in the nation against segregated polling places.

The suit, filed Tuesday in U.S. District Court at Albany, Ga., seeks desegregation of polling places and voting lists in Albany and Dougherty County.

A deputy assistant state attorney general, who specializes in segregation suits, Freeman Leverett of Elberton, said he knew of no such action filed in the past.

Clubs Porcupine; Shoots Himself

RIDGWAY, Pa. (AP)—John W. Covell, 46, of Halton, Elk County, accidentally shot himself to death Tuesday night in woods near his home.

State police Cpl. James Johnston said Covell's rifle discharged when he attempted to use it as a club to kill a porcupine.

Johnston said Covell and his wife, Ethel, 39, started out to hunt groundhogs. They were seated in their car along a road when Covell spotted the porcupine and chased after it, Johnston said.

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Members of the Philadelphia County Medical Society voted 171 to 115 Tuesday night against collaboration with doctors of osteopathy. The action reversed the action of the society's board of directors approving collaboration.

The board last May 19 recognized osteopaths as medical equals, and said such doctors would be permitted to practice in MD hospitals.

CHARGE STATE DRAGS FEET ON TRAILER BILL

HAZLETON, Pa. (AP) — The state's Democratic administration has been accused of pigeonholing a highway trailer law and thus endangering the jobs of some Pennsylvanians.

The charge was leveled Tuesday by Can-Do, Hazleton's industrial development organization. Edward Moody, treasurer of Can-Do, said that the administration's attitude is part of a pattern of inaction "which has pigeonholed attempts to modernize Pennsylvania's trailer law."

Moody referred specifically to a statement issued by the State Highway Department. The department opposed any change in the 35-foot limit on the ground of safety.

WOULD RAISE LIMIT

A bill before the legislature would raise the limit to 40 feet.

Hazleton, which is part of the economically depressed anthracite coal area, has a factory which manufactures 40-foot trailers. The company has threatened to leave the state if the 35-foot limit is not lifted.

One of the chief opponents of the bill is Joseph Clark of Philadelphia, a leader of the Democratic Party and the operator of a large trucking business.

Moody said that safety is not the issue since tractors and trailers together can be 50 feet long. He pointed out that modern snub-nosed, cab-over-engine tractors can pull trailers which are 40-feet long without violating the 50-foot over-all limit.

The Traffic and Safety Council of Philadelphia's Chamber of Commerce also issued a statement favoring the 40-foot limit. The Council's statement said that the 35-foot limit was imposed in 1949, but that technical developments have made it unnecessary.

Pennsylvania is the only state which still imposes a 35-foot limit.

MRS. LUTHER WETZEL

ORRTANNA — In the anniversary dedicatory services Sunday morning in the Mt. Carmel EUB Church, the Rev. Alfred Gottwalt read the First Psalm. After the hymn, "Faith of Our Fathers," orchestra selections were presented by six boys from the Quincy Orphanage. They were David Stoner, Edward Hassler, Gary Billet, Charles McCordell, Eugene Biller and Darrell Mintmar. The Rev. Fred Chritzman of the orphanage brought the message of the morning. Then the boys' sextette sang a group of hymns. After a congregational hymn, the services closed with the benediction. The boys were entertained in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Wetzel, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Chapman and Mr. and Mrs. Clair Rebert.

Mrs. Tracy Wyatt is reported to be doing nicely following her discharge from the Warner Hospital, where she was a patient due to an injury to her left forearm suffered from a fall at her home recently.

IOC TIGHTENS AMATEUR CODE WITH NEW RULE

ATHENS (AP) — The International Olympic Committee has tightened the amateur code by requiring that an athlete must have "a normal occupation destined to insure his present and future livelihood."

In addition amateur athletes must have "never received any payment for taking part in any sports competition."

The committee also approved today a 20-sport program for the 1964 summer Olympics in Tokyo, including volleyball, judo, canoeing and the modern pentathlon.

MAKE DISCLOSURE

The decision was disclosed by one of its members while the committee itself remained in session behind closed doors. The annual IOC meeting ends today.

Approval of volleyball and judo put those sports on an Olympic program for the first time.

The IOC decision was a compromise. The Japanese organizers wanted judo and volleyball while desiring to drop the pentathlon and canoeing. Many European and South American countries wished to keep canoeing and the pentathlon on the program.

Nikita Digs JFK With Pushinka Pup

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Kennedy has received a dog named Pushinka from Soviet Premier Khrushchev.

Pushinka, a white fluffy pup with brownish spots, is of no particular breed. But she has a celebrated mother—Stroika, whom the Soviets put in orbit around the earth and recovered last August.

Kennedy got another gift from the Soviet leader, a model of an American whaler carved from a walrus tusk by a Russian craftsman.

Kennedy had given Khrushchev a ship model at their Vienna talks—a model of the U.S.S. Constitution, "Old Ironsides."

FBI Agents Nab Man For Holdup

PITTSBURGH (AP) — A man who had been sought for two armed robbery charges was back in custody today.

Leo S. Friel, 35, was taken into custody by FBI agents in nearby Dormont Tuesday on a federal charge of fleeing the state to avoid prosecution for armed robbery.

Friel is accused of taking part in the $4,000 holdup of a payroll messenger at Malvern, Chester County, last May 19.

He also is charged with the $10,000 holdup of the Forester Federal Savings and Loan Association office in Pittsburgh last October.

was defined as someone who takes part in sports for pleasure and has not had "material gain of any kind" from this.

Controversy over the definition of an amateur has raged in world sport circles for several years, with Olympic officials generally favoring strict safeguards against professionalism. Some sports leaders in the United States and Europe have urged a loose interpretation of the code and state subsidies to promising athletes, claiming that this is the way Soviet Russia has become a power in the sports world.

SOVIETS WANT U. S. TO MAKE TOURIST BID

NEW YORK (AP) — Uncle Sam hopes to entertain more foreign visitors this year than last. But the big drive to encourage reverse tourism, and thus garner needed dollars, has run into problems, chiefly money, distance, language.

Government agencies and private enterprises are trying to dent these barriers. And today they have some advice from an unsolicited source: an official of the Soviet travel agency Intourist, in New York to see about setting up direct Moscow-New York air service.

He says Russian visitors would increase if the United States would advertise there, would end visa red tape, and cut prices. Last year only 1,000 Soviet tourists visited the United States while about 15,000 American tourists went to the Soviet Union.

WASHINGTON HOPEFUL

Washington officials hope for an over-all influx of nearly 500,000 pleasure and business visitors from overseas, plus 400,000 from Latin America, and an estimated five million Canadians to spend more than 48 hours in the United States. Travel from South America is expected to top that from the United States for the first time. And Japanese visitors may come in volume because of eased currency restrictions.

To beat the cost problem, various economy packages are being featured, such as $99 excursion rate bus tickets good for 99 days.

To tackle the difficulties from the great distances to be covered here are such package tours as one covering 20 leading cities. Prices range from $40 for a quick shopping tour of Miami to $615 for a transcontinental air and rail tour.

On the language front, great progress is reported in an American Express poll of various agencies and private firms.

Expanded interpreter services at ports of entry are being offered by airlines, steamship lines, international travel agencies, and Travelers' Aid.

WITNESS WON'T TALK AT TRIAL

EBENSBURG, Pa. (AP) — A witness called by the state refused to testify Tuesday at the trial of Cambria County Commissioner Frank Burns, accused of trying to influence prospective jurors.

Mrs. Loretta Oravecz of Portage R. D. 1 invoked the Fifth Amendment when summoned to testify about 1½ hours after the trial opened. A recess then was ordered until this morning.

A grand jury indicted Burns and Mrs. Oravecz June 5 for allegedly attempting to influence two prospective jurors prior to Burns' trial in March on embezzlement charges.

The prosecution said Mrs. Oravecz had made a statement in the case, and it was expected she would testify against Burns.

Two prosecution witnesses, Mrs. Mary Lutziger and Mrs. Alice Beck, both of Portage, testified Mrs. Oravecz had contacted them "with an idea to keep an open mind should they be called as prospective jurors for the embezzlement trial."

WATCH CAR KEYS

DALTON, Ga. (AP) — Police Chief L. L. Vining urged motorists not to leave keys in their cars, as did the driver whose car was stolen from the driveway of his home.

Officers found Vining's patrol car stuck in a ditch Tuesday and charged Dale Walston, 19, with car theft.

PARIS (AP) — West German President Heinrich Lübke arrived Tuesday for the first visit to Paris by a German chief of state since Hitler rode in triumph through the conquered French capital during World War II.

FIRST DAY OF SUMMER GETS WET GREETING

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Most of the eastern half of the nation greeted the first day of summer in showers and thunderstorms Wednesday, with heaviest amounts falling in Alabama and Tennessee.

Heavy rains centered over western Alabama with a wet band stretching from Kentucky, Tennessee and Alabama eastward to the Atlantic.

Violent weather warnings were withdrawn in northwest Florida Wednesday after a violent storm blowing out of the Gulf of Mexico brought widespread damage to a 200-mile area between Pensacola and Tallahassee.

CALLED A TORNADO

Heavy black clouds brought tornado-like winds, locally heavy hail and heavy rain. A Weather Bureau observer at Seagrave Beach called the wind there a tornado. He said one house was destroyed and five others were damaged.

About a half dozen tobacco barns were damaged at Sycamore and utility lines were blown down at several Gulf Coast communities southwest of Tallahassee.

In six hours one inch of rain fell at Montgomery, Ala., and .78 at Chattanooga, Tenn.

Scattered showers spread from Maine southwest to the lower Ohio Valley. Rain also fell in southern New Mexico and in upper Michigan and northeastern Wisconsin. Fog and low clouds hung along the coast of Southern California.

50 DEGREE TEMPERATURE

Snappy 50-degree temperature readings were widespread. They were reported in northwest Vermont; northern and western New York State; the Great Lakes and northern Ohio Valley; most sections of the upper and middle Mississippi Valley, along the Pacific Coast and in areas of the central Rockies.

Readings in the 40s were noted in Michigan and northeastern Minnesota with International Falls, Minn., reporting 45. The far Southwest reported 90-degree temperatures with 104 at Needles, Calif., and 101 at China Lake, Calif.

A STINKING FIRE

LIVERMORE, Calif. (AP) — Orlandis Breckenridge delivered a fire to the Fire Department Tuesday and it was a stinker. Breckenridge, a truck driver for the Livermore Disposal Co., was collecting garbage when his cargo started blazing. Trailing smoke, he sped to the fire house, where the blaze was extinguished.

Negroes Launch Campaign To Prevent Community From Being Predominantly Negro

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Panic selling by white persons in an integrated section of the Lakeview community near Hempstead, N.Y., has led to a campaign by Negro residents to keep the area from becoming predominantly Negro.

One of the first Negroes to move into the area, Lincoln Lynch, said the campaign was designed to stop panic selling and to alert Negroes that if they continue to buy in the neighborhood they run the risk of creating a segregated situation.

Lynch said Negroes are being urged not to buy homes in the section so the community can be stabilized at its present ratio of about eight white residents to each Negro.

40 HOMES FOR SALE

He said about 40 white families in the community of 150 to 200 residents have offered their homes for sale because of the increase in Negro population. The homes cost from $17,000 to $25,000.

At Louisville, Ky., about 300 white persons cat-calling and throwing rocks greeted Negro anti-segregation demonstrators at a private, segregated park.

Four or five white persons were arrested after the incident at Fontaine Ferry Park. Nearly 30 Negroes were arrested at the amusement park earlier Monday when they blocked an entrance during a demonstration, police said.

PONDER KENNEDY PLEA

The Interstate Commerce Commission announced plans for considering Atty. Gen. Robert Kennedy's request for a ban on racial segregation in interstate bus facilities. The ICC invited written comments to be submitted on Kennedy's proposal by July 20, with oral arguments Aug. 15.

Kennedy was criticized Monday by Alabama's Atty. Gen. MacDonald Gallion who said the federal official should "take his feet off the desk and put them on the ground."

Gallion denied a statement by Kennedy before a U.S. Senate committee that he had talked with Gallion and Alabama Gov. John Patterson about protection for the "Freedom Riders."

"Never before or since the beginning of the freedom rides has Bobby Kennedy or any of his assistants called me concerning this subject and I have never talked with this individual at any time," Gallion said.

The U.S. Supreme Court rejected three more appeals seeking to block public school integration in New Orleans. The high tribunal summarily affirmed a decision by a special three-judge federal panel in New Orleans that ruled unconstitutional the creation of a new school board by the Louisiana Legislature last year.

The Supreme Court also refused to order the setting up of a three-judge federal tribunal to hear a protest against Florida's new pupil assignment law by parents of 14 Negro children in Duval County (Jacksonville), Fla. The county school board defended the law as a constitutional and orderly

HOLDEN IRKED BY BLASTS AT SWISS REFUGE

By BOB THOMAS
AP Movie-TV Writer

First of two articles

STOCKHOLM (AP) — William Holden, formerly of California and now a resident of Switzerland, finds himself the center of controversy for that reason.

He has been attacked by Congress, lashed by his fellow film workers of Hollywood and criticized indirectly by the actors' union of which he was once an officer.

He is defiant.

DEFENDS SELF

"I'm living the kind of life that I think is best for me and my family," he says. "I'll continue to do so, no matter what laws are changed and what anybody says."

Holden is the most noted and the most articulate of the film personalities who have taken up life in Switzerland. Hollywood set-worker unions have castigated him for allegedly aiding "runaway production" of American films abroad. The Kennedy administration, undoubtedly with an eye on Holden, has recommended eliminating tax havens overseas for the likes of wealthy actors.

Certain senators have agreed. So has Holden's own union, the Screen Actor's Guild.

DEFIES GROUPS

Holden says, "What the senators and the Guild are talking about is their problem. It couldn't bother me less."

As far as he is concerned, it is much ado about little. "They talk about all the American stars who are living in Switzerland," Holden said. "Well, who are they? David Niven? He's English. Deborah Kerr. She's

New Portrait Of Jackie Kennedy

WASHINGTON (AP)—A new official picture of Mrs. John F. Kennedy has been made public.

The new official picture was taken by New York photographer Mark Shaw in the White House living quarters at the end of May.

English. Peter Ustinov? He's English. Noel Coward? He's English. Audrey Hepburn? She's Dutch-English.

"Then they mention Ava Gardner. But wait a minute — she's living in Spain, isn't she? So who does that leave? Me. That's all."

NEW FRONTIER

The actor remarked: "It seems to me that Americans have always been noted for moving around, for being unafraid of new challenges, new frontiers. Now certain people are trying to tell us to stay at home and not work abroad. It's a form of isolationism."

"Why did President Kennedy propose the peace corps, if not to get Americans to live and work in foreign lands?"

"They can change the laws any way they like. That won't make things any different for me. Living in Switzerland has been the most rewarding experience of my life."

Next: How and why Holden lives in Switzerland.

VETERANS GET TOP DIVIDEND ON INSURANCE

By W. JOYNES MacFARLAN

WASHINGTON (AP)—How can the Veterans Administration pay such high dividends on its participating life insurance policies?

That question comes up repeatedly, especially this year as the VA is paying not only its regular annual insurance dividends but also will pay a special dividend amounting to 80 per cent of the regular distribution.

Together, the 1961 payments will total almost $500 million.

ANNUAL DIVIDENDS

The regular 1961 annual dividends were distributed or credited to policyholders by March 17 — some $258.5 million to about 5.06 million veterans—instead of being spread as usual through the year.

The first special dividends since annual dividends were instituted in 1952 will total about $230 million. The first checks are to go in the mails late this month with completion of the payments now scheduled for about Aug. 1 instead of the earlier announced goal of Labor Day. Officials say there are several contributing factors to VA's ability to pay such dividends:

1. The laws which established the insurance programs fixed the mortality rates at high levels which prevailed in the 1860s and present death rates are much lower. Thus higher premiums are required and relatively large dividends are paid.

2. The government pays the administrative (overhead) costs of the programs and does not charge them to the insurance trust funds.

3. Claims arising from extra hazardous military duty ultimately are paid from appropriated funds and not charged against the trust funds.

The policies on which dividends are paid are largely U.S. Government Life Insurance (USGLI) primarily held by World War I veterans and National Service Life Insurance (NSLI) primarily held by World War II veterans.

No new NSLI or USGLI policies may be issued though lapsed policies may be reinstated by complying with requirements.

The VA has other insurance programs but they do not have general dividend participation policies.

Coach Hayden Riley's Alabama basketball team will play 26 games next season.

Nuclear Testing Decision Harries World's Powers

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst
WASHINGTON (AP) — Bernard Baruch, representing the United States, made a proposal to the United Nations on June 14, 1946, when this country alone had atomic weapons.

"We are here," he said, "to make a choice between the quick and the dead. . . . The peoples of the world long for peace and security and in that desire the United States shares ardently and hopefully."

"The search of science for the absolute weapon has reached fruition in this country. But she stands ready to proscribe and destroy this instrument, to lift its use from death to life, if the world will join in a pact to that end."

PROPAGANDA BAN

Among other things he proposed that any agreement banning the bomb would provide for an inspection system to prevent cheating.

But there was no agreement. Russia went on and developed both the atomic and hydrogen bombs. The United States developed the hydrogen bomb, too. In time Britain developed a bomb. France is working on it. So is Red China.

There was endless talk of outlawing such a weapon. But as the years passed the United States, Russia and in time Britain tested their nuclear devices.

SCIENTISTS WORRY

Near the end of 1958 the United States had had 134 nuclear explosions, Russia 55, Britain 21. Scientists began to worry for the future of mankind because of the danger of radiation from fallout.

The world pressured the big powers to cut it out. Then Oct. 31, 1958, became a memorable day not because it was on that day the United States, Britain and Russia met at Geneva to work out agreement to ban tests altogether.

This kind of talk had been going on for years. But it was on Oct. 31, almost three years ago, that the United States voluntarily stopped testing. Four days later, Nov. 3, the Russians, so far as this country knows, made their last test.

NO PROGRAMS

More talk and no progress. Then on March 21, 1961, the United States and Russia began talking in Geneva to agree on two things:

1. To ban tests altogether.
2. To work out an inspection system that would prevent cheating. For instance: through underground tests.

The months have gone by and the result is still zero. Just as the two sides have never been able to agree on disarmament, they haven't been able to agree on the nuclear test ban.

POLICE SYSTEM

On this one, just as on disarmament in general, the United States and Russia could never agree on how to set up a police system that would prevent either side from getting an advantage over the other by trickery.

While the talks on a nuclear test ban were getting nowhere in Geneva, Monday in Washington the United States and Russia began talking about beginning talks on disarmament, too.

But events in the past few weeks drenched both kinds of talks in ice water.

REDS BLAME U.S.

On June 4 the Soviets suggested that the twin problems of stopping nuclear tests and disarmament be linked together. On June 15 Premier Khrushchev in his fireside chat to the Russian people had something to say.

But he was vague. He blamed the West for no agreement and said that if the West agreed to complete disarmament, the Soviets would agree to any kind of controls.

But this business of controls has always been a major stumbling block with the Russians. On June 17 President Kennedy's administration told the Russians it objects to postponing agreement on a nuclear test ban while agreement on disarmament is sought.

TOOK RISK

It added that for almost three years the United States took the risk of not testing but that the "national security and defense of the free world do not allow this risk to be assumed indefinitely."

What risk was it assuming? One that's been talked of is that the Russians may have found a way to do secret underground testing while the United States does none.

Yet the Kennedy administration, despite this implied warning about resuming tests if the Russians don't agree on inspection system which would prevent them, will have to think hard before going ahead.

The reason: world opinion. The same goes for the Russians, of course.

HOFFMAN CAN FISH AS GOP CLOSES RANKS

WASHINGTON (AP)—It took a lot of pleading and a little "crying" in the House Tuesday for Rep. Clare E. Hoffman, R-Mich., 85, to get an okay for a weekend fishing trip.

The No. 1 congressional fisherman directed his entreaties to Rep. H. R. Gross, R-Iowa, who had objected to a request by the leaders to start debate Wednesday on a housing bill. The request required unanimous consent. Without its approval, the House faced the dire prospect of a Saturday session.

Gross and Hoffman, who almost always vote together and have a reputation for upsetting the well-laid plans of the Democratic and Republican leaders, call themselves "the only members of our party."

QUESTION OF HEALTH

"We are the party of good government and economy," they explain.

Hoffman asked Gross not to object to the housing bill request. He said he is "an old man" and "It's a question of health; I want to conserve my energy."

"You ought to have a little consideration for me. How about it?" Hoffman begged.

CHAMPION OF ECONOMY

Gross wanted to know the reason behind Hoffman's plea.

Well, Hoffman said, Gross is a leading champion of economy and could save some money by not forcing a weekend session and its accompanying Congressional Record printing costs.

"Does the gentleman want to go fishing?" Gross inquired.

"Yes, I want to go fishing," Hoffman conceded.

Gross finally gave in and withdrew his objection "in view of the impassioned plea made by the gentleman from Michigan."

"You mean my crying," Hoffman said.

Teen-ager Killed Near Fayetteville

FAYETTEVILLE, Pa. (AP)—A teen-ager was killed and three other injured Wednesday when their auto crashed into a utility pole and some trees on a rural road two miles north of this Franklin County community.

Pronounced dead at the scene of the accident was Anabelle Keifer, 16, of Shippensburg.

Admitted to Chambersburg Hospital were the driver Ronald Batzel, 19, of Walnut Bottom R. 1, and Sharon McClell, 15, of Shippensburg. Batzel suffered a possible spinal injury. Miss McClell suffered possible internal injuries and abdominal injuries.

Another passenger in the car, Chester L. Devon, 16, of Pleasant Hall, was treated at the hospital and then released.

ORDER PENNSY TO OBEY RULE

The PUC said Tuesday the railroad must maintain train service "at least equal in quality and in quantity" to that provided by its

FREEPORT SEA WATER PLANT IN OPERATION

By CHARLES GREEN

FREEPORT, Tex. (AP)—President Kennedy touches a button Wednesday and officially starts a project he has called more important than putting a man into space.

Kennedy's button was in Washington. The machinery was in the nation's first salt water conversion plant at the little Texas Gulf Coast town of Freeport, 50 miles Cleveland (Nos. 39 and 37) and the so-called Pittsburgh Night Express (No. 635) before the attempt to drop them.

PRR asked permission to drop them on April 14. The PUC issued a final order denying that permission a week ago.

The PUC said Tuesday it was informed the westbound Cleveland had been partially consolidated with another train, and No. 635 was left with a locomotive and coach after remaining units had been dispersed to other trains.

The commission said it would not regard the Pennsy as in compliance with last week's order if the trains' original makeup is not maintained.

south of Houston.

Vice President Lyndon B. Johnson and Stewart Udall, secretary of interior, were to be speakers at the plant dedication with D. F. MacGowan, director of the Interior Department's office of saline water, as master of ceremonies.

ONE OF FINE

The $1.5-million plant, first of five being built by the federal government, converts sea water into water so good it is purer than the water in most municipal water systems.

The plant has 12 evaporators that heat the sea water to about 250 degrees. The steam, when condensed, makes the fresh water.

Water produced at the plant will cost about $1 for each 1,000 gallons. If the plant turns out as well as government officials expect, it may be the pilot model for other plants that would convert the earth's deserts into lush gardens.

That's why Kennedy called the conversion project more important to more people than putting a man in space.

ON GAME BOARD

HARRISBURG (AP)—Nicholas Biddle of Bethayres, Montgomery County, will serve another term as a member of the State Game Commission.

His reappointment by Gov. Lawrence was approved unanimously by the Senate.

HOUSE OKAYS MINE BILLS

HARRISBURG (AP)—The House approved Tuesday night two bills setting new regulations for filling abandoned strip mines in the anthracite and bituminous coal fields.

But it returned to committee a proposed new law directed at subsidence problems in the soft coal regions.

The strip mine measures now go to the Senate for further action. Reports were that they had little chance of passage in the upper chamber.

The House votes were 150-51 on the bituminous strip mine bill and 148-52 on the anthracite bill.

However, the only measure that was debated was the bituminous bill. Although the votes were nearly identical, the bituminous measure was considered the more controversial.

Each bill generally would require that a mine operator refill his pits to the highest wall when he abandons his operations.

BOY DROWNS

MEADVILLE, Pa. (AP)—A 14-year-old boy drowned in a farm pond Tuesday night while attending a church picnic in Spring Twp., Crawford County.

He was David G. Henry, son of the Rev. Daniel Henry, pastor of the Springboro United Church.

PITTSBURGH (AP)—A falling steel beam killed Mason Ammerman, 35, of Templeton R. 1, Armstrong County, at the Lee Buncher Industries site in nearby Leetsdale Tuesday.

PROBLEMS DOG MOVIE STARS IN HOLLYWOOD

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—The movie colony had these tidbits to talk about today:

Natalie Wood and Robert Wagner who embarked 3½ years ago on a marriage their fans considered perfect, are living apart.

The announcement Tuesday caught the movie colony by surprise. A spokesman said it would be a trial separation; the couple has no immediate plans for divorce.

MARRIED IN 1957

Wagner, 31, and onetime child star Natalie, now 22, were married Dec. 28, 1957, in Scottsdale, Ariz.

A squabble among lawyers appears to have snarled Lana Turner's offer to settle a $750,000 civil suit for $20,000.

CORONER RULING

A coroner's jury ruled the case justifiable homicide.

Attorney Melvin Belli, who prepared the suit in behalf of Stompanato's only child, John Stompanato III, 13, said Tuesday the proposed settlement was off. He said he was annoyed by a statement attributed to Lana's lawyer, Louis G. Blau, that his client was offering the $20,000 settlement only to prevent further publicity.

Bing Crosby's eldest son, Gary, 28, is due in Hollywood today to recuperate from an attack of nervous exhaustion.

NERVOUS EXHAUSTION

"He saw a doctor in Chicago who said he had nervous exhaustion and should quit work immediately," Gary's press agent said Tuesday. "He is to go to bed for a month for a complete rest."

In Chicago, a night club spokesman said Gary's engagement was cancelled because he walked out on the show.

A Los Angeles court has turned down actress Linda Christian's bid for a $200,000 trust fund for her two daughters from the estate of her former husband, actor Tyrone Power, who died in Madrid in 1958.

YEARLY INCOME

Noting that the youngsters already have $10,000 yearly potential income from a previously established trust fund, Judge William J. Palmer commented Tuesday: "Only an infinitesimally few of the world's children are so fortunate."

Bumptious playwright Brendan Behan and his wife, Beatrice, are enroute by train to New York following a high-spirited drinking party he gave for friends Tuesday.

Of his new play, "Richard's Cork Leg," almost completed, Behan quipped: "It's about sex, politics and religion, in that order—in a ratio of about 60-20-20."

POLIO VICTIM IS TOURING ON SPECIAL TRUCK

CAMARILLO, Calif. (AP)—Marie Thompson, 35, is seeing Southern California reflected in an 18-by-24-inch mirror—on her iron lung.

Mrs. Thompson, confined to the lung day and night for 8½ years, doesn't let this hamper her yen for travel.

Touring is possible because of the specially designed panel truck Mrs. Thompson calls the Blue Angel.

The Blue Angel arrived in Camarillo Tuesday from the Thompson home in San Leandro, in the San Francisco East Bay area. The truck was driven by nurse Louette Barber. Mrs. Thompson's children, Marie Ruth, 14; Joy, 12; and Gay, 10, were in a car driven by Marion Ray.

GUESTS OF DOCTOR

The visitors are guests of Dr. and Mrs. Fred Delay in this Ventura County community north of Los Angeles.

"It's a dream come true," she said. "You wouldn't believe how much I can see."

Mrs. Thompson's late husband, the Rev. Fred Thompson, designed and outfitted the panel truck. It has portable generators, a resuscitator, humidifier, a ramp and other equipment. They made some short trips in it together, but in 1956 he was killed while working on their San Leandro home.

As the Blue Angel rolls along, Mrs. Thompson watches the landscape unroll behind her in her mirror.

"Oh, there are so many places I want to go—so many things I want to see," she said. "We'll be on this trip for a month, probably as long as there's anything to enjoy."

Of their first 36 one-run games this spring, the Los Angeles Dodgers took 28.

U.S. Presses Spy Charges Against Czech Diplomat; Hammaraskjold In Squeeze

By MILTON BESSER

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — Secretary General Dag Hammarskjold was caught Wednesday in a cross-fire from the United States and Communist Czechoslovakia over U. S. spy charges against Czech diplomat Miroslav Nacvalac.

The United States sent Hammarskjold a note charging that Nacvalac, handsome 39-year-old counselor at the Czech U.N. mission, is Prague's chief intelligence agent in America and that he paid an instructor at the U.S. Army Language School in Monterey, Calif., $1,700 for information.

The United States said it had pictures to prove it. The language instructor, a naturalized American citizen born in Czechoslovakia, confirmed the U.S. account.

DEMANDS RECALL
The U.S. note declared anew that the Czech government should recall Nacvalac at once and denied that the demand for his departure violated the agreement between the United States and the United Nations giving special rights to diplomats accredited to the United Nations.

Nacvalac denied all the U.S. charges. His delegation indicated it would press Hammarskjold to rule that U.S. action against the counselor violated both the U.N. charter and the U.S.-U.N. agreement.

The U.S. note said Nacvalac was known to U.S. authorities as the "chief of Czechoslovak civilian intelligence operations in the United States and has a long background in Czechoslovak intelligence work."

EXIT PERMIT

It charged that Nacvalac had six meetings with the Army language instructor, Karel Hlasny, between 1958 and 1961, offered an exit permit from Czechoslovakia for Hlasny's fiancée in exchange for intelligence information, and paid him various sums totaling $1,700.

The United States said Hlasny was cooperating with the U.S.

government all the time and the information he passed was worthless. But Hlasny's fiancée got her exit permit in 1959 and they were married in California.

Nacvalac said the U.S. charges were "all lies" and that he had never been in California. But U.S. State Department press officer Lincoln White displayed photographs of Nacvalac and Hlasny he said were taken outside a San Francisco restaurant where they met.

TRIBUNAL ISSUED

Czechoslovakia's charge that the U.S. demands violated the U.N. headquarters agreement with the United States had aroused speculation that the Czechs would request that the case be referred to an arbitration tribunal. Clayton Fritchey, a spokesman for the U.S. delegation said the arbitration proceedings can take place only when there is disagreement between the United States and the secretary-general, and "we know of no such issue."

Fritchey said he had been assured last week by the Czechoslovak delegation that Nacvalac would be leaving soon. This was denied by Zdenek Cernik, acting Czechoslovak delegation head. He said he had informed the United States that his government rejected the charges against Nacvalac, and that he was awaiting further instructions from Prague.

Name 3 State Men To Peace Corps

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Peace Corps Tuesday named three Pennsylvanians to train for work in Tanganyika and Columbia.

Matthew Peterson Wright, 24, of Kane, and Pierce Henry Ripka, 34, of Pottstown, will begin training June 26 at Texas Western College for assignments in Tanganyika.

Marlin Dale Cutshall, 21, of York, a student at Millersville State College, will go to Rutgers University June 26 to be trained for a job in Columbia.

Wright received a Bachelor of Science degree in Geology in 1959 from Allegheny College. Ripka, a surveyor and farm equipment operator, worked eight years as a carpenter and contractor.

PROPER CHOICES

FAIRPORT, N.Y. (AP)—Valedictorian and salutatorian at Fairport High School were Robert Witty and Diane Schoolmaster.

Ed (Rocky) Ryan, Michigan State's 1961 football captain, led Chicago's Leo High School to the 1956 city championship.

Nacvalac, and that he was awaiting further instructions from Prague.
